

GERMANY OPENS WAY FOR NEUTRAL SHIPPING

OFFICIAL NOTE PUTS BLOCKADE SITUATION UP TO GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, March 4.—The official text of the German government's reply to the American note suggesting that Germany and Great Britain agree on a plan to lessen danger to neutral shipping in the war zone was made public here today. It follows:

"The imperial government have taken note with great interest of the suggestion of the American government that certain principles for the conduct of maritime war on the part of Germany and England be agreed upon for the protection of neutral shipping. They see therein new evidence of the friendly feeling of the American government towards the German government which are fully reciprocated by Germany.

"It is in accordance with Germany's wish also to have maritime war conducted according to rules which without discriminately restricting one or the other of the belligerent powers in the use of their means of warfare are equally considerate of the interests of neutrals and the dictates of humanity. Consequently it was instituted in the German note of the sixteenth instant that observation of the Declaration of London on the part of Germany's adversaries would create a new situation from which the German government would gladly draw the proper conclusions.

"Proceeding from this view the German government has carefully examined the suggestion of the American government and believes that they can actually see in it a suitable basis for the practical solution of the questions which have arisen.

"With regard to the various points of the American note they beg to make the following remarks:

"First, with regard to the sowing of mines the German government would be willing to agree as suggested not to use floating mines and to have anchored mines constructed as indicated. Moreover, they agree to put the stamp of the government on all mines to be planted. On the other hand, it does not appear to them to be feasible for the belligerents wholly to forego the use of anchored mines for offensive purposes.

"Will Not Attack Mercantile Ships

"Second, the German government would undertake not to use their submarines to attack mercantile ships of any flag except when necessary to enforce the right of visit and search. Should the enemy nationality of the vessel of the presence of contraband be ascertained, submarine would proceed in accordance with the general rules of international law.

"Third, as provided in the American note this restriction of the use of the submarines is contingent on the fact that enemy submarines abstain from the use of the neutral flag and other neutral distinctive marks. It would appear to be a matter of course that such mercantile vessels also abstain from arming themselves and from all resistance by force since such procedure contrary to international law would render impossible any action of the submarines in accordance with international law.

ARMY GIRL IS TO WED THIS SPRING

Miss Julia Turner Heyl.

Miss Julia Turner Heyl, elder daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Charles H. Heyl of Washington, is engaged to marry Mr. Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, formerly of Atlanta, Georgia, but now of Washington. While there is no definite time set for the wedding it is expected that it will occur in the early spring. This will make the second wedding to occur in Colonel Heyl's family within a year. Miss Helen Heyl, the younger sister, was married to Lieut. Milo Fox, of the army engineers, last fall. Mr. Colquitt is connected with the interstate commerce commission in Washington.

BEITLER BILL IS PASSED

Columbus, O., March 4.—The house by a strictly party vote passed the Beitler bill which provides that county auditors shall become assessors in counties of the state.

An emergency clause was attached to the Beitler bill, most Democrats as well as Republicans voting for the emergency.

During the debate Representative Young, Democrat of Cleveland, made a violent attack on the Barnes law which he asserted "added tyranny to hypocrisy."

WOULD AID VETERAN EMPLOYES

Columbus, March 4.—Public employees who have served ten years or more in their present positions and who have passed non-competitive examinations would be exempted from the automatic and wholesale displacement as public servants provided in the Moore bill, according to terms of an amendment submitted by Senator Moore, author of the measure, to the senate judiciary committee today.

ALLIED FLEET TRAINS GUNS ON INNER FORTS

London, March 4.—While British battleships are battering Fort No. 5 and Fort No. 9 in the narrows of the Dardanelles from a point 10 miles with the entrance to the straits, French warships from the Gulf of Saros, are bombarding the Turkish positions at Bulair.

A report has been current in London that certain big Krupp guns recently sent to the Dardanelles are still unmounted, and the aerial reconnaissance sounds over the streets last evening seems to have confirmed this report.

The 50 some battleships of the allies, which now show that all the colors of the Triple Entente by the addition of the Russian cruiser Askold, undoubtedly have turned the straits of the Dardanelles into an inferno which, according to British and French claims, has spelled destruction to the Turkish defenses. On the other hand reports from Constantinople deride this activity as ineffective.

Turks Declare Inner Works Are Impregnable

The Turks, however, do admit the destruction of the outer forts which they say they expected, but they declare the inner works impregnable. The Turks rely on mines, but mine sweepers of the allies have been busy within a mile and a half of the forts, destroying a Turkish mine field detected by a sharp eyed aviator.

According to a British officer, only two of the inner Turkish forts remain intact. Allied landing parties found the charred remains of soldiers in the damaged forts, showing that the Turks had burned their dead before evacuating these positions.

Says Bank Liquidator Fired By Walters Was Superfluous

Columbus, March 4.—The name of former Governor James M. Cox was mentioned for the first time today in connection with the investigation being made of the banking department affairs under former Superintendent J. W. Lattanner, by the Winans legislative committee.

John D. Bainer, bank examiner, testified before the committee that George W. Knecht, of Dayton, had been recommended as liquidating agent of the defunct Osborne bank, of Osborne, by Governor Cox to Superintendent Lattanner. Later he testified that Knecht had been entirely a superfluous employee so far as the liquidating work was concerned; that Knecht knew nothing about bookkeeping and did little even toward collecting notes of the bank.

Bainer explained that Knecht had been dismissed last December because George Walters, appointed superintendent banks after Lattanner's resignations, had refused to approve his salary check. Nearly half of the banks liquidating expenses $10,342, had been spent for Knecht's salary and one-fourth for attorney fees, Bainer said.

TOUCHING SCENES MARK END OF SIXTY THIRD CONGRESS

BUSINESS NOW HAS A PERIOD FOR CALM ADJUSTMENT SAYS PRESIDENT

Washington, March 4.—After his return to the White House today from the senate where he signed a number of bills, President Wilson dictated the following statement about congress and its work:

"A great congress has closed its sessions. Its work will prove the purpose and quality of its statesmanship, more and more, the longer it is tested. Business has now a time of calm and thoughtful adjustment before it, disturbed only by the European war. The circumstances created by the war put the nation to a special test, a test of its true character and of its self control.

"The constant thought of every patriotic man should now be for the country, its peace, its order, its just and tempered judgment in the face of perplexing difficulties. Its dignity and its strength alike will appear not only in the revival of its business, despite abnormal conditions but also in its power to think, to purpose, and to act with patience, with disinterested fairness, and without excitement, in a spirit of friendliness and enlightenment which will firmly establish its influence throughout the world."

BELIEVE ALL BUT SCORE OF 177 MEN PERISHED IN MINE; RELATIVES CROWDED AT PIT

Hinton, W. Va., March 4.—High up on Quinimont mountain scores of anxious persons, the families and friends of the miners entombed by the explosion in Layland mine last Tuesday, still waited anxiously today for news from the rescue crews. They knew, in a general way, that the main entry of Mine No. 3 had been closed off after the explosion and the rescuers were gradually working their way through cross entries and rooms in search of bodies, but with what success they were kept in ignorance.

There was a rush toward the shattered opening of the mine when word came that five more bodies had been found and a rumor spread that other bodies had been located and likely would be brought out before evening. Eight bodies will be brought here for burial tonight.

There was still much confusion as to the number of men who entered Tuesday morning. After canvassing the situation the company made known the names of 177 who were employed in the workings affected. Whether all of them were at work when the explosion occurred officers of the company admitted that they were unable to say but the opinion prevailed in the crowd of spectators that perhaps twenty had escaped the disaster.

Little hope is now entertained that any of the buried men are still alive. But fourteen bodies have been recovered.

BILL HOLDS WOMEN TO 48 WORKING HOURS A WEEK

Columbus, March 4.—Women employees in most establishments except telegraph and telephone companies may not work more than eight hours a day, six days a week, or 48 hours a week, according to terms of the White bill which the house labor committee today voted to report out with recommendation for passage.

"Hello girls" who work at night and are permitted to spend certain time in sleep must be paid, however, for one third this rest time. The bill applies to women employed in factories, workshops, business offices, restaurants, bars, military, dressmaking and other mercantile establishments.

Girls under 18 years of age may not be employed at work to take them on duty before seven o'clock in the morning nor keep them after six in the evening.

W. VA. MUST RAISE $2,000,000 REVENUE

Charleston, W. Va., March 4.—Sitting as a committee of the whole, the West Virginia State Senate, when it ressembled to take up the work of the special session, plunged into a maze of figures produced by State Auditor John S. Darst, Tax Commissioner Fred O. Blue and E. A. Dover, Auditor of Public Accounting.

When the smoke of argument cleared away the upper branch of the legislature found itself confronted with the problem of raising approximately two million dollars additional revenue for the next biennial period to meet the current expenses of the state government and to cover the deficit of $624,000 in the state treasury at the end of the last fiscal year, without taking into consideration balances of unexpended appropriations of $350,000.

Figures showing the condition of the state treasury and the necessity of providing additional revenue were brought before the Senate during the consideration of the Rosenbloom bill providing for a 15-cent direct property tax, an increase of five cents over the present state tax.

ARIZONA APPEALS

Washington, March 4.—The state of Arizona appealed to the supreme court today from the decision of the federal district court which held unconstitutional the Arizona anti-alien employment law against which Great Britain and Italy had protested as a violation of treaty rights.

New York, March 4.—Prof. Hiram Bingham, of Yale university, who discovered a lost Inca city of marble in Peru, sailed yesterday by the United Fruit Steamship Zacaque with a Yale expedition to complete the work of uncovering the mysteries of Inca civilization.

TRIBUTES ARE PAID TO RETIRING MEMBERS

Washington, March 4.—Congress adjourned today sine die. The senate adjourned at 12:04 p. m., and the house after turning back the hands of the clock adjourned at 12:18 p. m.

The total appropriations of the session were approximately $1,120,484,324, several millions under the record of previous congresses.

Two appropriation bills failed. Current appropriations for the postal service and the Indian office were extended for another year.

In the closing hours, President Wilson signed the Soumen's bill, the neutrality resolution empowering him to prevent ships leaving American ports with supplies for belligerent ships, promoted Colonel Goethals to be a major general for his services as builder of the Panama canal and gave promotions to other officers associated with the work.

The administration ship bill, the Philippine bill, the conservation bills, the rural credits provision of the agricultural bill and ratification of the treaties with Columbia and Nicaragua—all hard pressed administration measures—fell by the wayside.

In the senate several members, long prominent national figures—among them Senators Root and Burton, stepped back into private life as the curtain fell. In the house, Democratic leader Underwood pressed administration measures—fell by the wayside.

PRESIDENT CAN PUT EMBARGO ON WAR MUNITIONS

Washington, March 4.—President Wilson today put his signature to a joint resolution of congress, which enlarges his power to prevent violations of American neutrality, by declaring at his will, an embargo on all munitions or supplies intended for a belligerent nation. The resolution, a substitute for that previously passed by the house was unanimously adopted by the senate early today following a conference at the White House last night between President Wilson and members of the foreign relations committee of the senate and house and others. It was later agreed to by the house and today only awaited President Wilson's signature to make it a law.

As finally passed the resolution differs in some essential particulars from the original house measure. It has the hearty support of state department officials who pointed out the immediate need of its passage because of the "critical situation" resulting from the European war. Attention was called by these officials to the fact that the American government had been hindered by inadequate legislation to prevent the foreign relations committee of the senate and house and others. It was later agreed to by the house and today only awaited President Wilson's signature to make it a law.

WAR NEWS CAUSES DROP IN WHEAT

Chicago, March 4.—Wheat prices made a sudden downward plunge today in the last 15 minutes of trading today. Reports were current that millions of dollars worth of orders for war supplies, mostly arms and ammunition, had been cancelled in the last 48 hours.

Although confirmation of the reports was lacking, the market broke to a point 7 1/2 cents a bushel under last night, the May delivery touching $1.37 today as against $1.45 1/2 for the same option 24 hours previous.

Columbus, March 4.—The state board of pardons today recommended that a full pardon be granted to Jacob Benschang, former Cincinnati politician, serving a term of two years in the penitentiary. Benschang, who was a deputy county auditor of Hamilton county, was convicted of illegally compromising and withholding Aiken liquor taxes. He has served about one year of his sentence.

A Remarkable Medicine

A few years ago I suffered from kidney trouble to such an extent I thought I was developing serious kidney trouble. I tried Lithia Water and Tablets without relief. Then I tried several doctors without any improvement. At the last, my kidneys became so bad that I made the remark at the time that I would not live until Christmas. I saw Swamp-Root advertised in a paper and having tried everything else without relief I resolved to try it and obtained a bottle before taking the entire contents I was entirely cured and feel as if I had obtained a new lease of life.

I am very thankful for what Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root has done for me and consider it a wonderful medicine. Yours very truly, Connell was served by Sheriff Smith Thursday with a subpoena from the Franklin courts to testify in the case of the State of Ohio against Albert Slater, a criminal action, which will be heard Friday of this week. Rev. Connell is in doubt as to the nature of the case, his only knowledge of the defendant being that he solemnized his marriage to a Columbus girl last August while he was pastor of a Columbus church.

Rev. Connell's absence will not conflict with the revival now on at the Bigelow church. If he is unable to return in time for Friday evening's meeting, Rev. J. W. Dillon, of this city, will have charge.

THE COLUMBIA, PARAMOUNT TOMORROW

"The Italian," A Beautiful Story
To its theme, "The Italian" is a story of intense human interest, deftly put together with the skill of the master playwright and expressed on the screen with all the power at the command of a premier actor and his supporting cast.

It is the simple narrative of a poor Italian's love for a girl of his race, his coming to America, his subsequent marriage, and the burning paternal love for his little baby.

Beppo (Mr. Behan) toils hard to make enough money to bring his sweetheart to this country. A baby is born, but is stricken with illness which the doctors declare will prove fatal unless thwarted by the use of pasteurized milk.

On his way home with money to buy the milk, Beppo is robbed by thugs. He puts up a fight and is arrested. Suddenly he sees the ward boss riding an automobile. A plea for assistance is ignored and Beppo is sent to jail. When he is released he finds that his baby has died. Swearing vengeance upon the ward boss, whom he blames for the baby's death, the Italian awaits his chance. It comes when the boss's infant is stricken with brain fever. Beppo gains entrance to the home and is about to dash the baby's brains out when the tiny hand moving reminds him of his own dead son. His heart softens and he goes away to spread flowers on the grave of his "bambino."

While the story is abundant with incidents of the most compelling pathos, it is rich in the innocent humor of the poor Italian, and thrilling at times with scenes among the slums of New York.

Mr. Behan has given the production all the fine traits that have made him noted as an actor. From the time that he is seen making love to his second from his Venetian gondola, until he is seen to be shaking in a paroxysm of grief over the tiny grave, his face is ever an inspiration.

"My Official Wife" At Lyric Today
Today the dazzling Vitaphone triumph, "My Official Wife" in 5 parts and from the first scene in which the beautiful and fascinating Helene Marie, Queen of Nihilists, vows to go to Russia on a secret mission, until her lovely body is seen floating on the waves beside her noble Russian lover, the picture carries us through a maze of adventure.

"My Official Wife" was written by Richard Henry Savage and was dramatized for stage purposes over a decade ago. The picture is in five parts and is one of the strongest dramas of Russian life ever filmed. The atmosphere of the Czar's dominions is cleverly carried through the entire story, while contrasted views of peasant life and Russian society give a vivid glimpse of conditions as they actually exist.

Clara Kimball Young, who plays the beautiful nihilist, is an admirable Helene Marie, her face revealing the rapt soul of the young platter for liberty. Miss Young is ably supported by Earle Williams, Harry Morey, L. Rogers Lytton and a star cast of Vitaphone stars such as we never before assembled in one picture.

The great climax when the fair Helene meets her fate on a yacht that is literally blown to atoms is the most thrilling and incidentally the most expensive scene ever photographed. Davidson's orchestra will have some good music to make things more enjoyable and the admission will be as usual, ten cents. The shows will start at 1:30, 3, 4:30, 6:30, 8, 9:30.

WAS HELD ON SUSPICION; WAS MISSED BY CHURCH; IS RELEASED AT ONCE

It is little wonder that the mayor dismissed Claude Harrison, a colored young man, who appeared before him Monday on complaints that he had been enacting some "Jack-the-Prepper" stunts, after receiving the following communication:

Portsmouth, O., Feb. 27, 1915.
Mr. Claude Harrison was arrested on suspicion and taken to the city prison. He was greatly missed from the 5 o'clock prayer meeting Sunday morning and the Young Men's Bible Class, and his Sunday school, and from his home. When one of God's children is not at his place, you will miss him. There is no one can take his place. It is just the same as a mother or a father when death comes and takes one of the family. Just think, God is above the devil, and his portion is in the hands of his Maker. From a MOTHER AND FATHER.

Portsmouth, O., Feb. 28, 1915.
Mayor Adna Friel:
Honorable Sir:—The young men of the Bible Class of Pleasant Green Baptist church, on hearing of the arrest of one of its regular, punctual attentive members, in the person of Mr. Claude Harrison, wish to promulgate a few facts in his behalf, touching his character in general. Brother Harrison is a member of this church and a faithful worker in all of its auxiliaries. We know him and wish to cheerfully recommend him as a Christian gentleman.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back-ache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a pain in the kidneys of your back, limbs, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of stinging, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take it at breakfast in a glass of water, before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in uric acid, and to loosen the uric acid so it can be passed in the urine, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

GIVE US ELBOW ROOM.

This world is getting mighty small, or never has been as big as its reputation. Here in Portsmouth set far in the interior, according to usual calculations, but there isn't much worth while that can occur anywhere, unless somebody in Portsmouth is more or less intimately concerned in it. We read of the slaughter of countless armies about Prussians and right back in our press again is a young man born within thirty miles of the place; the death of a gallant young Prussian officer is reported and the reporter comes in with the word that his aunt is a resident of the city; a Get-Rich-Quick-Wallfingford is ambushed in Georgia and orders are issued to another reporter to go out and get a story from him people, who live in this man's town; the telegraph editor inquires: "Shall I play up this story of Missouri bandits imprisoning the president and directors in the vault and robbing the bank?" The editor says: "Sure; that's where my brother lives and he may be one of the directors. The t. e. gasps and splutters: "Did you say robbers?"

THE GOOD THAT BLOWETH.

It remains for the amiable and peace-loving William H. Taft, once president, now a pedagogue of some note, to point out not only the international right, but the national necessity of manufacturers in the United States furnishing arms and munitions of war to such of the European belligerents as are able to pay for them. In other words he finds the good that comes from the evil wind.

Adverting to the contention that our government should prevent Americans from selling military equipment to nations fighting with each other, he contends no hindrance should be placed upon the practice, both because it is under recognized international law and that it may eventually mean the preservation of our own land from the ravages of foes. His theory is that it is impossible these United States will in times of peace make such demands upon the makers of cannons, guns, torpedoes and shells as will place the nation's armament upon a war basis; therefore, in time of stress they would be unable to meet the demands upon them, were it not that by permitting them now to supply the orders of foreigners they gain both the experience and the equipments that qualifies them to meet any requirements of the future.

And again, as we contemplate the problem of whether Joe did or didn't, with its various angles of accusation and denial, we are reminded of the old story of the man who grabbed hold of the tail of the bull. He had a big time for a few minutes, you will remember, but when he got tired of the fun and wanted to quit, he found he had a problem of his own on hands in letting loose.

One of the interesting out-of-the-ordinary thrills of the day with us now is to find glaring headlines in our exchanges reading something like this:—"Big Scandal in Portsmouth's Administration," followed by the fulgurous demand of The Star that Mayor Frick tie a gun to Director of Public Safety Dr. Joe Lake.

The Democratic voters of Chicago are a most unreasoning set. According to the Tribune they defeated Mayor Harrison for the 'tenth nomination because his performances were not equal to his promises.

Well, according to Lord Kitchener, it is less than two months before fighting will begin. As perveyor of the world's happenings, that hardly interests us so much as whether or not Mr. Kitchener is going to let any word of the fighting seep out.

It cost Chicago $266,000 to demonstrate that she is not a musical center. Her Grand Opera Company has just quit that amount in debt.

The Ironclad expresses the fear that when the Portsmouth Star goes into the Lake it may get into deep water.

It has come! Coming down in the elevator, this morning, the other fellow said: "Have you noticed these Zeppelins are carrying the war sky-high?"

The usually accurate Marion Star tells us Edward Gibson is dead at Raymond. Would he be alive if he were in Marion?

Just give William J. Burns time and he'll catch him. Of course, he is from Ohio.

SPRING BIRDS

WASHINGTON'S SINS.

(Roonke, Va., World-News)

In a Washington birthday address Champ Clark, speaker of the house, made the following statement: "Somebody may object that Washington occasionally drank a mint-julep, bet on a horse-race, danced the Virginia reel and at Monmouth swore because Charles Lee spoiled the plan of battle by retreating when ordered to charge," the speaker said, "but we must judge men by the manners and customs in which they lived and not by those of our times. In Washington's day nearly all men drank mint-juleps, occasionally danced, bet and swore with-out any consciousness of sin. Washington was thoroughly human and no doubt sometimes sinned. I am glad he did sometimes sin, for it shows we belong to the same breed that he did which is a great honor to the rest of us."

Commenting on this paragraph the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch says that "there were better men and less crookedness before the business of being my brother's keeper enlisted the serried ranks of general reformers."

It is curious, and also highly interesting, to note how eagerly the weakness of great men is seized upon to bolster up the cause of luxury. Mr. Clark says, "I am glad Washington did sometimes sin," and the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch chimes in with a fling at what it terms "general reformers."

The company that assembles under the banner of sin and misery is almost countless, embracing probably at one time or another every human being on earth. But the members of this company are not always alike.

A vast number of them are glad that others fail. In the downfall of their fellow men, they have peculiar comfort. In the up-building of their fellow men they have bitterness of spirit and an endless array of splanetic ideas.

A vast number of others are glad when men succeed. They rejoice over beauty of character, exult in the achievement of human opportunities, and believe in the growth of purity and goodness.

Between these two factions, if such we may call them, there is a wide difference. Every man and every newspaper can enroll himself as itself for one side or the other. If he be glad that others sin, he will rejoice because of the misery that we all endure? If he grieves that others sin, and believe that men can work sincerely for righteousness, he will glory in the goodness and virtue and love that in reality exist all around him.

The war news of the week so far is chiefly characterized as being no news.

The Russians are slaying and taking them by the millions, but just wait until about next Friday. We'll hear different sorts of tales then!

Somehow when we hear threats of libel suits against a newspaper mixed with denials of accusations we don't think much of the suits.

Animal Jingles

FOR LITTLE FOLK

CAN YOU GUESS IT?

Of course you guessed the CHAMOIS, I'm not at all surprised. That you should know it without being told. And now (today I'm going to tell you of an animal. That is so fierce, it makes your blood run cold.

It lives away in Asia, and is just about as large as a lion, and has whiskers like a cat. Its eyes are big and shiny, and they glisten in the dark. When it goes to hunt its prey—now think of that!

Its skin is marked quite handsomely with rows of shining black. And is quite often used for rugs and such. But we all know that "handsome is handsome does," and so we really can't admire this creature much.

For it is as ferocious and as cruel as can be. It will eat men and little children, too! It's really not an animal that one would like to meet. I'm glad it lives in Asia, aren't you?

I think perhaps you've guessed its name already, and, if not, I'm sure you will before so very long. The name begins with "T," so make your guess, and you will know.

Tomorrow whether you are right or wrong.

SAYS HUSBAND IS INNOCENT

Portsmouth, O., March 4, 1915.

Editor Times:—Kindly allow me space in your paper in which to make an emphatic denial of the charges made by Mr. Panekko, who testified before Mayor Frick in the case where my husband was accused of stealing his (Panekko's) pocket watch, which resulted in my husband being found guilty. Mr. Panekko testified that I had told him that my husband had stolen the watch, which is a falsehood in every particular. He did not even speak to me concerning the disappearance of the watch. My husband did not even take the watch, as can be proven beyond a doubt, that my husband testified I am sure Mayor Frick would not have found him guilty. We have lived beside the Panekkos for some time and we thought nothing of it if Mr. Panekko used our name without permission. That my husband used the name, it would mean that he was malicious in his actions, for Mr. Panekko was always at liberty to use our name without permission.

My husband is accepting the verdict of Mayor Frick with resignation, but I think it is wrong for him to be suffering when he is innocent, and when Mayor Frick, whom I believe to be an honest, conscientious man, doubtless convicted him through the testimony of Mr. Panekko, who declared that I had told him Mr. Henderson had stolen the watch, and disposed of it. An investigation will prove that every word in this story is absolutely true. MRS. JOHN W. HENDERSON.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur dardens so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, grizzled or gray; stops ends, dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by taking a few drops more of the Gray Hair Dressing and Sulphur Compound, you will get a higher lot of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You darken a sponge or wet brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCK

New York, March 4.—Leading stocks developed an uncertain tone in the course of today's dull market. Specialties were mainly higher.

Unusual activity in U. S. Steel at a substantial fractional advance was the prominent feature of the early trading. Other market leaders notably Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Pennsylvania showed some hesitation, but soon moved forward with the general list. Specialties also were conspicuous in the rise, the motor shares adding to recent advances. The local market derived no encouragement from London where all international securities showed heaviness, with severe declines in Reading, Bries and Union Pacific.

Activity ceased soon after the opening and prices fell back, some of the leaders, including Canadian Pacific, Reading and Amalgamated Copper declining to below yesterday's close. The short interest renewed its operations on a moderate scale, mainly as a result of the absence of any new developments in the international situation and intimations of a strain in interior banking quarters. Southern Railroad pld., which had shown acute weakness recently, was among the few railway issues to register a marked gain. Another gold import from the Orient excited interest in foreign exchange circles. Bonds were irregular.

Supporting orders brought a moderate rally from the low level in the final hour. The closing was heavy.

from the absence of any sign that rural offerings were likely to become more free. The president of one of the large grain companies here was quoted as saying all the wheat obtainable at present could be disposed of as readily at $1.65 as at $1.45. The opening, which was 1/2 to 1 1/2 lower, was followed by a rise to well above last night's level.

Corn swayed with wheat. Trade was light. After opening unchanged to 1/4 and 1/2 off the market scored a moderate general advance.

Active demand from the east gave independent firmness to oats. Sellers were scarce.

Lower quotations for hogs had a depressing effect on provisions. Later, however, the upturn in grain began to tell against the bears.

Heavy Argentine shipments led afterward to a setback in wheat. The weakness was increased by news of fresh attacks on the forts at the Dardanelles and afterward much more so by reports that large orders for war supplies, mostly arms and ammunition, had been cancelled in the last 48 hours. The close was hurried at 4 1/4 to 4 1/2 net decline.

Subsequently large stocks and the slowness of cash demand acted as a weight on the corn market. The close was heavy at 1 1/4 @ 1 1/2 under last night.

Fortified Tires Now in the Light

The supreme test of a tire is to hold top place—the place in the sun—and for years. Goodyear tires have done that. Long they have led, both in sales and prestige.

Men expect much of the top place tire. They look for a superior tire in it. Any seeming fault, due to mishap or misuse, becomes a defect in the place.

But Goodyear Fortified Tires, after years in this light, hold their place there. Last year they bought 1,470

COMMITTEE IS SECURED TO PROBE HOSPITAL CHARGES

Rev. Dunning To Be Third Member

Messrs. L. C. Turley and Harry Strong, the two members of the committee selected to probe the charges made against city officials by the Star, this morning selected Rev. J. W. Dunning as the third member, and all consented to serve under the condition that the committee be given the legal power to summon witnesses and to compel them to testify.

The committee, through one of its members, stated there was considerable doubt as to whether this power could be conferred, and said that the city solicitor had been asked to give them an opinion as to whether this was possible, and if so, how to proceed.

It was stated that Mayor Frick had given the committee his assurance in writing that he would confer every authority on them in his power to grant, as it was anxious to have the charges probed.

Members of the committee also said that they were anxious to go into the matter thoroughly, if given the proper authority, and that they would begin sessions of the committee as soon as possible. They also asked that it be stated that the members of the committee did not feel that they represented any special class, such as laboring men, manufacturers, ministers, etc., but that they represented all citizens of the city who were concerned in having the truth about the city administration being made known.

The committee addressed the following letters to the mayor and city solicitor:

Honorable Adam Frick, Mayor, City.
Dear Sir: The two members of the committee appointed by you have selected Rev. J. W. Dunning, who has consented to act as third member of the committee.

We are immediately taking up with the city solicitor, Mr. McCall, the matter of legal authority to be conferred upon the committee for the proper examination of witnesses.

If such authority can, and will, be legally invested in us, our committee will proceed with the investigation promptly; if such authority cannot be invested in us, we will be unable to serve and will give you notice as promptly as we hear from the city solicitor. Appreciating the honor and confidence shown in the appointment, we remain

Yours very truly,
J. W. DUNNING,
HARRY H. STRONG,
L. C. TURLEY.

Mr. H. Stanley McCall,
City Solicitor, City.
Dear Sir: Enclosed, please find copy of letter just addressed to Mayor Frick, who has appointed the undersigned a committee with the assurance that he, as mayor, will confer full authority for summoning and examining witnesses in a legal manner so far as it is in his power to do so.

Will you kindly investigate the subject and advise the committee promptly as to how, or in what manner, this authority should be conferred on them, also advise the mayor or other proper authority at the same time.

The committee is anxious to go into the subject and finish it promptly and thoroughly, provided it is given such legal authority, but not otherwise.

Yours very truly,
J. W. DUNNING,
HARRY H. STRONG,
L. C. TURLEY.

City Solicitor Stanley McCall expressed the opinion Thursday afternoon that the probe committee would not have the legal authority to summon witnesses but was not certain of it and would render a written opinion Friday.

Mayor Frick said Wednesday that in the appointment of the committee he had done all he possibly could and that no one in the whole city was more anxious than himself to bring the case to an early end. Whatever the findings of the committee would be he had the courage to perform his full duty. He said the committee itself was acting with dispatch and was equally determined to get the investigation under way as early as possible. This was shown by the fact that within ten minutes after organizing it had addressed and delivered its letter to Solicitor McCall asking what legal status it would possess.

AUSTRIANS LOSE HEAVILY IN RELIEVING PRZEMYSL

London, March 4.—The interest of British readers in the Russian campaign has again shifted to the extreme southern portion of the line of battle, where Petrograd reports that General Brusilov has won a noteworthy victory south of Baligrad, inflicting heavy losses on the Austrians who were again pressing north to the relief of Przemyśl. At the same time an official dispatch from Bucharest credits the Russian forces with the re-occupation of Stanislan, in Galicia, about 60 miles from Tarapole.

At the same time Vienna reports the repulse of desperate Russian counter attacks in the Carpathians, with comparative inactivity along the remainder of the line. Berlin admits officially the German retirement from Przemyśl, north of Warsaw, which was made in good order in spite of haste that necessitated the abandonment of the wounded.

On the western battle front, in France and Belgium, the French now appear to be content to hold the positions they claim to have won in the Champagne district.

DEDICATED TO GOLD CLUB

From a friend of the members to the members of the Gold Club.

There are clubs of all descriptions, From the wild-cat to the clover; But the club that I'm going to write about, Has got them beat all over.

Their meeting place is not the kind, With decorations galore; Not on the whole it's just the reverse, An uptown grocery store.

They have their meeting every night, Except on Sunday, "never," And nothing ever keeps one home, Unless it is very bad weather.

They talk about the weather, And they talk about the war; And then one tells a tale, They've heard hundred times before.

And each one sits and listens, As though it were something new; And you just bet, there's many a time, They have a good laugh, too.

They call themselves the gold club,

For what reason I can't say; They're not the golden-haired youth kind, Not some are very "gray."

They've had golden opportunities, For each one has had his day; It might be so but I don't know, But that's what some folks say.

Perhaps they carry it in their sock, You can't sometimes always tell; A man to have the gold, Don't always have to be swell.

There are six of them in number, And a jolly set they are; But when the clock strikes eight, They generally walk toward the door.

Then each one has his little say, And off they go toward home; And I bet there's no more congenial crowd To be found, this side of Rome.

These meetings have been going on, For over twenty years; And all are alive to tell the tale, So I want to give them all "three cheers!"

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Roser Scholl

Joseph Scholl, superintendent of the tie plate mill at the Whitaker-Glossner steel plant at New Boston, received a telegram Wednesday, informing him of the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Roser Scholl, 76, which occurred at her home in San Diego, California, Wednesday morning at 2:30 o'clock. Death was due to a paralytic stroke sustained the evening before.

The deceased had been in failing health for the past few weeks, having suffered a stroke of paralysis recently upon her return to San Diego from her old home in Scranton, Pa., where she had visited relatives. That, coupled with the stroke Tuesday evening, was responsible for her death.

Mrs. Scholl was a native of Germany and came to this country when young. Her husband preceded her to the grave a few years ago. She is survived by eight children, as follows: Joseph and H. P. Scholl, of this city; John Scholl, of Basile, Ala.; Robert, of San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Mary Kline, Mrs. Anna Pfeiffer and Mrs. Lena Scholler, all of Scranton, Pa., and Miss Kate Scholl, of San Diego.

Local relatives are awaiting word from San Diego regarding funeral arrangements. If the body is taken to Scranton, Pa., for interment, they will attend the funeral.

Eli Hartley

Taps sounded for another veteran of the '91-'95 conflict, when Eli Hartley, a successful farmer, passed away at 10:15 Wednesday night at the family residence near Wall Station. He had been ill eleven weeks with asthma and heart trouble. He was 73 years old and is survived by his faithful wife, Mrs. Lucy Hartley, and two nephews and a niece of this city, Frank and Eli Dunn and Miss Carrie Dunn. Mr. Hartley was a member of the 66th Regiment in the Civil war and served his flag with distinction, having taken part in several important battles in this memorable conflict. He had been a highly regarded resident of Wall Station for many years.

The funeral services will be conducted from the home Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, and interment will be made in the Wheelerburg cemetery.

Interment In Greenlawn
The remains of Mrs. William Van Buskirk, who died at Westerville, Ohio, are expected to arrive here on the 11:45 a. m. train Friday and will be taken directly to Greenlawn cemetery for burial.

The funeral services of Edward Rowley who died at his home in Sciotoville Wednesday will be held Friday morning at nine o'clock at the Sciotoville Christian church with Rev. Rochester Irwin in charge. Interment will be made in Rowley cemetery near Wheelersburg.

Frank Bassler Funeral

The funeral of Frank Bassler will take place from the late home on Second street Saturday at 2 p. m.

GERMANY OPENS WAY

into Germany suggested by the American government appears to be in general acceptable. Such regulation would, of course, be confined to importations by way of neutral ports. The German government would, therefore, be willing to make the declarations of the nature provided in the American note so that the use of the imported food and foodstuffs solely by the non-combatant population would be guaranteed. The imperial government must, however, in addition, emphasize having the importation of other raw material use by the economic system of non-combatants including forage, permitted. To that end the enemy governments would have to permit the free entry into Germany of the raw material mentioned in the free list of the declaration of London and to treat materials included in the list of conditional contraband according to the same principles as food and foodstuffs.

"The German government ventures to hope that the agreement for which the American government has paved the way may be reached after due consideration of the remarks made above, and that in this way peaceable neutral shipping and trade will not have to suffer any more than is absolutely necessary for the unavoidable effects of maritime war. These effects can be still further reduced if, as was pointed out in the German note of the sixteenth instant, some way could be found to exclude the shipping of munitions of war from neutral countries to belligerents on ships of any nationality.

"The German government must, of course, reserve a certain statement of their position until such a time as they may receive further information from the American government enabling them to give what obligations the British government are on their part willing to assume."

next senate, and three score of members retired.

Pay Tributes to Retiring Senators
For many minutes before adjournment there was a lull in the senate. Absolutely no business was transacted. Senator Simmons paid a tribute to Senator Perkins, of California, who retired at noon. Senator Perkins sat for a moment in contemplation of the tribute. Then he slowly raised his hand toward the North Carolina senator and his colleagues in a gesture of farewell, and then took his seat again, too overcome with emotion to speak.

Senator Gallinger offered a resolution of thanks to Vice President Marshall for his service as presiding officer of the senate.

In the house the last hour was devoted to tributes to Speaker Clark, Representative Underwood and Republican Leader Mann.

Representative Palmer announced the presentation of a portrait of Mr. Underwood to be hung in the hall of the ways and means committee. In doing so Mr. Palmer said:

"There is no doubt Mr. Underwood soon will be the leader in the senate. He is one of the greatest Americans in his time."

In the senate, some of the senators who retiring from public life made farewell addresses.

Burton Asks Senator To Consider Public

Careful consideration of the public interest in conservation legislation and the development of a larger spirit of comity between the United States and foreign nations, particularly those of Central and South America was urged by Senator Burton, who was ending twenty-two years' service in congress. Instead of giving so much attention to questions of state rights and national control he urged senators hereafter to consider first, the public interests.

The tribute to Speaker Clark was led by Republican Leader Mann, who eulogized the "able and loyal speaker" and presented a resolution thanking him for his services. It was passed as the house rose to its feet with a tumult of applause and cheering. When it subsided the speaker said:

"The multiplicity of honors and kindness that this house has heaped on me goes straight to my heart."

Clark Pays Tribute To Floor Leader

Mr. Clark paid a tribute to Republican Leader Mann, Progressive Leader Underwood and Representative Underwood and said in conclusion:

"I hope every member of the house will enjoy this long vacation—if in the providence of God it turn out to be a long one. And I hope that the blessing of God may rest upon each and every one, those who are to come back as well as those who retire to private life. And may God bless every one."

vessels from leaving the United States with supplies for belligerent warships in contravention of American neutrality. The proposed legislation is a direct result of information obtained by the government in the recent grand jury inquiry in New York into alleged shipments of supplies to belligerents at sea.

The resolution becomes effective immediately upon being signed by the president and will continue during the existence of the European war.

The resolution empowers the president to direct customs collectors to withhold clearance from any vessel of American or foreign register or license which declares to be "about to carry fuel, arms, ammunition, men or supplies to any warship, or tender, or supply ship of a belligerent nation in violation of the obligations of the United States as a neutral nation."

If such a vessel sailed, or attempted to sail, without clearance, a fine of from $2,000 to $10,000, imprisonment of two years, or both, and forfeiture of the vessel would be imposed. The president is empowered to use the military force of the country to enforce the law.

MOTHER! IT'S CRUEL TO FORCE OIL OR CALOMEL INTO A SICK CHILD

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "physic" that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, enlaxatives. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's tender little "insides" are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmful kind of physic.

less "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love it, take it that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow. It should be the first remedy given as it always does good, never any harm. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for growing-up plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company, 221-223 DeFussure."

DETECTIVE DENIES SENSATIONAL CHARGE AND SO DOES WOMAN

Sensational accusations made by John Cooper, a North End young man, against his wife, Mrs. Minnie Cooper, and W. A. Ellsworth, an N. & W. detective, were vigorously denied by the latter two in police court Thursday morning.

Cooper had filed an affidavit against Mr. Ellsworth, charging him with disorderly conduct. Mayor Frick, assuring the detective that it was his unpleasant duty to place him on trial in his court, arraigned him on the charge. Mr. Ellsworth promptly pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Cooper was then called upon to repeat his testimony previously given in the case of Samuel Boyer, an aged negro, at whose little home on Sixteenth street, the alleged misdeeds of Ellsworth and Mrs. Cooper took place. Boyer had been found guilty of misconduct and fined $10 and costs.

Cooper said he had gone over to near the Portsmouth Paying brick plant shortly after dinner, returning home about the middle of the afternoon, to find his wife and baby gone. He began making inquiries for the wife and was finally told she had gone out to sell soap.

He said as he passed the Boyer home he was surprised to find Maria Warren, a colored woman, holding his baby. He asked her where "Minnie" was, and was told she had gone over home, but would be back shortly. Cooper said Boyer now began walking up and down rather excitedly and said to him that Detective Ellsworth was in his house. Cooper said he walked over to the house and was shocked to see his wife and Ellsworth "all huddled up." He said his wife jumped behind Ellsworth to conceal herself. He said he tried to kick in the door, and while thus engaged his wife had gotten out into the other room, and pushed by the Warren woman and pushed out a cot against the door to give the appearance that the rooms were closed to each other.

Mr. Ellsworth was called on to testify in his own behalf. He reminded the court that he had pleaded not guilty and asked for a continuance of the case, to give him time to engage a lawyer and summon some witnesses. The mayor accordingly continued the hearing until Friday morning.

Deny Any Wrong Doing
Boyer and the Warren woman denied all knowledge of any improper conduct between the couple, but Boyer was unable to satisfy the court as to why he left his own house to go out on the railroad trucks, leaving the others together. Boyer said he had not intended to lie to Cooper when he told him he thought Mrs. Cooper was not in the house, for he believed she had gone out. He said Ellsworth had told him not to let any of the colored boys of that vicinity know he was there. The aged man thought somebody was dreaming imaginary scenes in saying anything wrong took place in his home. He admitted having treated the white woman to beer in his home at times, and said she and Maria were on the best of terms as neighbors.

Ellsworth Tells His Story
Ellsworth, himself, said he had for days tried to get into the Boyer home as a point of vantage from which to shadow coal thieves, but was unable to do so without being detected until Wednesday. He went there after passenger train No. 15 had run, for it was then that the freight pass, one after another, and the coal thieves got busy. He knocked at the door and was called to enter by Boyer himself. Besides the old man, the Warren woman, Mrs. Cooper and her baby, the Warren woman's grown son and Crawford Johnson were there. He told them of his mission and then got to whiling away the time by having Boyer tell some old Southern plantation stories. He said Johnson started to go, but he ordered him to remain for fear he might tip off his presence to the coal thieves. Later Johnson and Warren walked out into the yard. He said he remained sitting at the window, from which he had a clear view of the track. Mrs. Cooper was standing behind a stove. He said they were possibly alone in the room for five minutes, but nothing unusual was seen or heard.

Cooper Also Denies
Mrs. Cooper believed that she had not spent more than an hour at the Boyer home, and told of trying to sell soap. She denied having nursed her baby in Ellsworth's presence, or that anything wrong took place between them. She explained the fact that they were left alone in the room five minutes by saying the Warren woman, who had been holding her baby, got up and went into her room.

RECEDING GUMS FROM Microbes and Acids
Beauty and health depend much upon the condition of the teeth, and care should be taken of them. You don't carry decayed food in your teeth. Why carry food in the cavities and crevices of your teeth? Take the N. Y. World. Many all-day yellow or brown coatings on the teeth, or a blackened condition inside, then come the attacks that drive and multiply, bore holes, make cavities and infect the upper and lower cavities of teeth. Then come sore throats, gums, apyria or swollen gums, bleeding teeth, tooth dropping outwards, swollen, inflamed, sore, red, and every one of the teeth, sensation comes from gnawing hot or cold, eating sweets, etc. The teeth rot, the nervous system is injured.

Now these conditions can be readily overcome. You can destroy the microbes, rid the teeth of yellow coatings, stop more decay, and if you will just get four ounces of this cream from your druggist (you won't need more), and use a teaspoonful morning and evening, rubbing it to and fro in your mouth, minute or so. You awake with a clean mouth, sweet-smelling breath, teeth strong. No need for gold fillings.

Mayor Is Neutral In Greeks' Trouble; Other Police News

Louis Hedges, a dapper looking young Greek, got very dramatic in detailing in police court Thursday his differences with Harry Chueles, of the Manhattan restaurant.

Rising to his full height and with voice at its uppermost pitch he began addressing the court thusly: "The Honorable Adam Frick, mayor of the city of Portsmouth, Scioto county, State of Ohio, United States of America." He claimed to have been treated as a slave for six months by the Chueles Bros., that they had forced him to work 18 hours per day during the Kora Carnival and when he quit the other day had refused to pay him $4 that was due him.

Chueles denied the other's claim, said he had offered him his check for February but he persisted in demanding four dollars more than was due him, got noisy and became so annoying he had to be put out. He denied striking Hedges. The mayor after listening to both for some time dismissed the assault charge against Harry and advised them to adjourn to some shade tree and settle their differences peacefully.

Charles Williams' plea in police court was that he had been ill for two months and was not feeling well and so when Foreman George Egbert took him to task about some work at the N. & W. round house Wednesday night he became angry and called him vile names. Williams' aged mother admitted to the court that her son had been drinking and sobbed bitterly as she told of her own illness and how she tried to keep whiskey away from Charley. The young man was fined $10.

Walter Johnson was convicted of the charge of furnishing intoxicating liquor to Elza "Red" Shaw and was fined $10 and costs. Charles Lawkins, who was wanted on a similar charge, has not been apprehended.

Tom Murphy, who said he had just been discharged from the U. S. navy and was en route to his home in Wellston, was fined $10 on a disorderly charge.

Murphy was caught in a raid on the home of Mrs. Viola Walsinger, of Eleventh street, Wednesday night. The woman was not arrested on account of her little child but failed to appear in court as promised. Her case was continued until Friday.

Alva O'Brien, Floyd Bowman and Ernest Valodin, the North End youths, charged with stealing automobile lap robes, umbrellas, paring knives, etc., were bound over to the grand jury and their hands fixed at $100 each.

O'Brien alone pleaded guilty to the other declaring their innocence. No evidence was produced against Valodin. Bowman denied having any hand in the stealing and said he bought the paring knives of a little colored boy, whom he did not know, for 15 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tuelker identified one of the automobile robes as their property. They said they had possessed it for fourteen years. People from all over the city are visiting headquarters to see the collection of robes, hibernian and other loot.

The case of Osa Delaney, who is charged with cutting Jack Moler during a fight at the latter's home on Mill street Tuesday night was continued until Friday morning.

Delaney has engaged Attorney

Theo K. Funk and will claim the cutting was done in self defense. Moler, according to word from his bedside at Hempstead hospital, was doing nicely Thursday and has not developed any complications.

Suggests Viaduct At Broadway St.

Mayor Adam Frick is out with a compromise proposal should the Lawson Run viaduct or overhead crossing project fail and suggests that Broadway be chosen as a new site for a viaduct. The mayor feels it would be a serious mistake to return to the Kendall avenue subway plan and does not think that the railroads will ever build an under crossing there. He a year ago had thought of Broadway and Gallia street as a most suitable site for an overhead crossing nearer as it is to the city and serving as it would the purpose of a new street in diverting traffic and relieving blockades and congestion at the Gallia street crossing. He would start the viaduct on the vacant unoccupied lots near the Smith and Dunn coal office and take an "S" shaped swing ending the structure near the Harsha flour mill on Eighth street.

Councilmen after their meeting Wednesday night expressed fears that the Lawson Run viaduct project would be abandoned and while they would regret it they felt it was not for council to take any initiative in the proposed elimination of Kendall avenue grade crossing in the face of the N. & W.'s claims to owning the crossing.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, enigmas, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care, The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 66. Residence A-490.

Dear Miss Wise—I have been so much in your column lately about married folks and their troubles, that it is time something was done to relieve the situation. The men have made such a mess of things in the past that it is high time we women had a say. Now I'm in favor of changing the laws or customs or whatever you call it of men having the privilege of choosing a wife and letting the women "pop the question." Believe me we would never choose such outlandish mates as some of the men have chosen. The main reason we have so many unhappy marriages is because men haven't got sense enough to choose the right kind of a girl for a wife. I think the custom ought to change, every time there is a new president elected. The men could propose for four years and the women for the next four years. This would do away with so many old maids and old bachelors. A nice, good, sensible man, will marry a silly butterfly now in preference to a good sensible girl. The butterfly doesn't care a rap for him. All she wants is a home or fine clothes, and she will continue to lead the same frivolous life regardless of the fact that she

Miss Dolly Wise.—Dear Friend—I have a question to ask you and I want you to answer it. I am 17 years of age and I like a boy 20 years of age. He is a blonde and has brown eyes. I have brown hair and blue eyes. Dolly do you think I am too young to talk to boys? He is a barber. Do you think he could make me a living or not? Please tell me. I love him very dearly. Am I too young to get married? Please tell me.
J. M. B.

Dear Dolly.—I have been reading the articles in your paper for some time now, regarding the young men and women of this city, and I would like a few lines in which to express my ideas in the case. I have been thrown with all kinds of men, good and bad, just like the young girl who signed herself as a "Working Girl" in the paper the other evening, and I am like her, I have never had a chance to say that they ever said a word or did anything that would cause me to think that they were not perfect gentlemen. I am no back number, either, but I have had gentlemen to tell me that I was different from the majority of girls in office positions. When I read about "women upholding girls who run the streets at night, and stand on the street corners trying to make dates with young men, I feel that they must be just like these girls, themselves. There is positively no good in a girl who will meet up with any or every man that comes along. I am in a place where I can see mighty strange actions out of some of our married women, and I want to say right now, that the forwardness in ways done by the women. I could walk up and down Chillicothe street from north to south, and I know that not one man unless I knew them personally, would even speak to me, much less say unkind things about me. The reason for this is I am a good, clean girl, and the men know those kind from the bad ones. I have been raised to appreciate my home, and do not get dissatisfied when I do not have company, but believe when the time does come, I will get a good, pure man.

AN OFFICE GIRL

Miss Dolly Wise.—I have no idea of an improvement if patented could be used to a good

Dear Dolly.—Having read so much of your friendly advice to others I would like for you to help me a little also. I am a woman of 19 years, and have had considerable trouble since I have been married. My husband and I are separated now. He left me in good faith and said he was going to the country to get work, but he has been gone about four months, and has never written me since. I hate to give him up, after all our trouble, but what else am I to do. When he is with me he says he loves me and all such stuff as that. Should I wait for such a man as this? Please tell me. How is my writing and spelling. My husband makes fun of me and says it is no account.

FORSAKEN WIFE

He will probably send for you when he finds work. However, if you know where he is, you might write him a letter and cheer him up a bit. Judging from several paragraphs in your letter (which I had to cut out), I think you are extremely jealous of your hubby and accuse him of doing many things he is not guilty of. There is nothing you can do but wait until he returns, then you can patch up your differences. Your writing is not very good.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl of 16 years old. Dear Dolly how can I get rid of a neighbor woman who nuzzles me of flirting with her husband? Dolly he is a big rough thing and he has got the biggest mouth and he is the ugliest thing I ever laid my eyes on. Dolly, I don't keep steady company with a young man. Dolly is there any harm in a girl letting a fellow bring her home from church? My mother don't care for me going with the boys once in a while. Dolly I belong to church and I try to do what is right. I don't go to shows for my parents won't allow me to go. Is there any harm going to a show once in a while? Dolly my brother goes to shows, but I never go out after night unless it is going to church. One of my girl friends is mad at me, but I am not made at her. How could I get to see her and be a friend of hers again?

Would advise you to keep away from the woman or else move to a different neighborhood. There is no harm in letting a boy walk home from church with you, but don't get into the habit of meeting boys on street corners or making dates with them. Your mother is right. You are too young to keep steady company. There is certainly no harm in going to see a good show once in a while, but you are not missing much by staying at home. Some people want to go to the movies or to a show every night, while others never think of going to such places. The next time you see your girl friend, suppose you smile sweetly at her or else speak to her as though nothing ever happened.

Dear Dolly.—I am a young man 25 and have been going with an old maid. I'd like to get rid of her without making her mad. Please tell me what to do.
WORRIED YOUNG MAN.
Have a heart, my dear, and don't turn the poor girl down. If you don't want her you had no right to deceive her.

Darkness—I wouldn't go with such a man if I were you, give him to understand he can't play fast and loose with you.

Would like to get in communication with some reliable girl or middle aged woman who would like to do general housework.

SOCIETY

Twenty-five years ago today, Mr. D. A. Grimes and Miss Mollie Browning were married in the Christian church at Falmouth, Ky. The ceremony was said promptly at eight o'clock. Mr. Lawrence Olden acted as best man and Miss Carrie Litter as maid of honor. The ushers were Mr. Van Hobbay, Dr. Edward Wilson, Judge J. B. Colvin, all of whom still reside in Falmouth, with the exception of Mr. Olden, who now lives in Winchester, Ky. Miss Litter, the maid, passed away a few years ago. The flowers, used in the decorations were orange blossoms sent from Florida by Mr. G. D. Grimes, brother of the groom. From the scene of the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Grimes went to Canville, Ky., to visit Mr. Grimes' parents, who gave a reception and an elegant noonday dinner to fifty guests in their honor. This afternoon Mrs. Grimes entertained a large number of friends in celebration of her twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and also in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Lawrence Grimes, a bride of a few weeks. The rooms were prettily decorated in the yellow, green and white color scheme. Narcissus and ferns were artistically arranged about the rooms. Little Miss Margaret Maupin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maupin, greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. D. A. Grimes was attired in a handsome gown of light blue satin with trimmings of jet. Mrs. John L. Grimes wore an elegant gown of lavender tulle velvet. From three until five o'clock over one hundred guests called at the Grimes home. Assisting in the hospitality were Mrs. Wells A. Hutchins, Mrs. J. C. Milner and Mrs. Harry Maupin, who invited the guests to the dining-room. Mrs. Joseph Peckles, a sweet young matron, presided at the coffee array. The table was an exquisite creation of narcissus and delicate ferns. Mrs. Howard Moore and Miss Ethel Doer served the delicious yellow and white ice cream, adorned with a sprig of shamrock, and the cakes were iced with yellow and white, with a delicate touch of green. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Nathan Booth, of Alexandria, Ind., sister of Mrs. Henry Heer, and Mrs. William Heitsagen, of Cincinnati, guest of Mrs. Grimes. This evening, from eight until ten, Mr. and Mrs. Grimes will receive a number of friends complimentary to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence Grimes. The bride will wear her handsome wedding gown of white satin. Mrs. Wells A. Hutchins, Mrs. John Peckles and Mrs. Samuel L. Johnson will assist in inviting the guests to the dining-room. Mrs. Joseph Peckles will preside at the coffee and her assistants will be Miss Marjorie Purcell and Miss Emma Johnson. The guests in the evening will include the members of the Art Circle and a few other friends.

Mr. Bert Brant, of Main street, Sciotoville, entertained the Main Street Kensington Wednesday afternoon. All members were present. Needle-work and music were indulged in. At the meeting it was arranged to give a banquet next week at the home of Mrs. Zora Todd. The husbands of the members are to be present. Mrs. Brant was assisted in serving the refreshments of pink and white ice cream and pink and white cake by Mrs. Carey Walden and Mrs. Davenport Mammel. The decorations were pink and white and ferns. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Macquard the first Wednesday in April. At Wednesday's meeting the annual election of officers was to have been held, but the old officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. E. E. Macquard; vice-president, Mrs. Lester Finny; secretary, Mrs. Stephen Stewart; treasurer, Mrs. Davenport Mammel.

Mrs. P. E. Selby has returned from a visit with relatives in Indianapolis, Ind.

Fate Of Overhead Crossing Now In The Balance; Whole Project May Be Abandoned

With but one dissenting vote city council Wednesday night rejected the resolution proposed by N. & W. officials declaring council's intention not to interfere with the elimination of the Kendall avenue grade crossing after the overhead crossing is completed.

Council did not stop with the action stated but went on record as declaring that unless the N. & W. and B. & O. S. W. accepted the ordinance providing for the construction of the Lawson Run viaduct or overhead crossing by the first meeting in April it would repeal all legislation pertaining to the overhead project and the clerk and solicitor were directed to so notify the companies.

All members voted to reject the resolution save Mr. Wilson. He was the last member reached on the roll call and after a moment's hesitancy he voted "No." Thus what promised to develop into a lengthy and spirited discussion in which property owners and other interested persons in the lobby were ready to join, was shut off.

Chairman Gulker Presented Resolution

Chairman Gulker of the street committee, introduced the resolution. Mr. Westphal at once raised the question that if the Kendall avenue crossing had been used for 21 years the city had any rights to the crossing. Solicitor Stanley McCall replying to him said it was a matter to be ascertained by reference to records but that a certain portion of the crossing had never been dedicated.

Mr. Westphal took the ground that if the city had no rights in the crossing it was not for it to say that the crossing should be eliminated and if the N. & W. owned it, as claimed, it was up to the company to close it to travel but he far one would never vote for the resolution.

Mr. Gulker took the same stand declaring that the crossing had never been dedicated to public use and if the N. & W. wanted it closed it could build a fence across it right now but he was opposed to council taking any steps in the matter and going on record and thereby waive all rights that some property owners might have there. He said he was not borrowing any trouble but he did not think council should take the stand the N. & W. would have it take.

Hanging Fire For Many Months

Solicitor McCall reminded council that the overhead project had been hanging fire for months and that the N. & W. had never accepted the ordinance drafted and will not go ahead until council either passed or refused the resolution. He suggested that action be taken one way or the other as early as possible to settle the matter and called attention to the fact that the old Kendall avenue subway legislation was still in effect and that it was probably advisable to give the railroads a certain thing in which to proceed with the overhead crossing or return to the subway plan. He was settled only in seeing an early settlement of the proposition and said that was due the property owners of that vicinity who were kept in suspense.

Attorney Edgar Miller who said he represented some 200 property owners of Hurltown and vicinity was privileged to briefly address council. He simply wanted to corroborate Mr. Westphal's statement and added that the Kendall avenue crossing was a legal crossing by common law dedication and that the property owners seriously objected to its elimination. Mrs. Clara G. Foster also desired a hearing to oppose the resolution but the chair ended further discussion by declaring there was no motion before the house. Mr. Westphal brought matters to a head by moving that council reject the resolution. Messrs. Gulker, Moeller, Osborn, Schumack, Shump and Westphal voting for and Mr. Wilson against the motion. Mr. Gulker created some merriment by wishing to embody in the resolution any further proposals on the Kendall avenue question the future might bring but was ruled out of order, the chair informing him that council cannot object to something that is not up before it.

Mayor Frick Was Absent

Mayor Frick was not present but the reading of his communication, giving a summary of the flood wall extension and other big public improvements recommended by the board of control for this year was followed with considerable interest.

After Mr. Wilson moved to receive and file the communication Mr. Gulker expressed himself as heartily in favor of the mayor's suggestions but thought that he should have made specific recommendations as to what part of the improvements should be undertaken. He felt that council was not acting as a whole in the way of finances. President Osborn agreed with Mr. Gulker and suggested that the board of control recommend such of the improvements it would advise forwarding. He said the general summary simply placed the improvements right back to council when the board should be the body making the recommendations.

Tried To Refer It To Committee

Mr. Wilson moved that the flood wall extension be referred to the street committee but this brought objection from Mr. Gulker. He did not think this the proper committee to pass upon the proposed improvement and insisted it was for the board of control to make recommendations. Mr. Wilson thereupon withdrew his motion and Mr. Gulker's motion to refer it to the board was substituted and carried.

It was plainly evident from expressions made that President Osborn and the Republican members have determined to continue impressing the administration heads that council is only the legislative branch of the city government and that the board of control shall make all recommendations. The service director was reminded, too, that council was not going to pass upon recommendations of subordinates and any estimates of the city engineer or other subordinate officials must bear his approval. He was told it required only a few words but such was the proper method to follow.

Director Gergens submitted the list of streets recommended by the city engineer for paving this season namely:

Old Chillicothe road, from Grant street to Seventeenth street; Gay street from Eleventh street to Fourteenth; Harvard Place from Gallia street to Patterson alley; Kinney street from Thirtieth to Seventeenth street; Norfolk street from Gallia to the N. & W.; Park avenue from Robinson to Grant street; Walnut street from Norfolk street to the east corporation line.

Wanted Kinney Street Omitted

Mr. Gergens felt that Kinney street should be omitted from the list as a few pieces of property there would not stand the measurement and the improvement would work a hardship upon the owners. He recommended that Market Road be substituted instead declaring that was more extensively travelled and was now almost in an impassable condition. He said $200 had been spent by the city keeping it in repair last winter and that it was a drag on the taxpayers of the city. The sooner it was paved the better.

Mr. Schumack asked the director what his recommendations were for Park avenue. He felt that asphalt would not be a good plan there but that brick would make it a good job and that property owners desired that sidewalk be included in the improvement to make them uniform. Upon Mr. Gulker's motion the solicitor and engineer were directed to bring in legislation at the next meeting for the paving of the streets recommended by the director.

Chairman Wilson of the fire committee was granted further time in which to submit a complete supplemental report on the proposed motorizing of the city fire department. He said he had hoped to do so at this meeting but some prospective bidders had requested a little further time in which to submit their estimates. He said he would have his report ready by the next meeting.

Touched Almost

Some fireworks was threatened when Mr. Gulker reported some property owners on New Seventh street between Lincoln and Off-nere streets were restrained from taking out sewer taps because the sewer varied in size. This brought Mr. Gergens to his feet. He said he was glad the subject had been brought up. He said acting upon council's orders he had arranged for an extension of the sewer from the Maddock addition to Lincoln street, and had awarded the contract to Kelley Bros. for $83. They had delivered the tiling and had started the work when it was stopped by City Engineer George Wilhelm. "Give it to him good and strong for he deserves it," said the director with considerable warmth but a search for the engineer proved he was not in his office. Mr. Gulker again took the floor and demanded to know: "Who is the service department anyway, the engineer or the director. If we ask anything done why isn't it done?"

No action was taken and although Mr. Wilhelm later entered he was not called upon for any explanation of his act. Safety Director Lake had no report to make.

Chairman Moeller, of the light committee, said there was quite a demand for additional lights and wanted to be informed how many had been provided for in the semi-annual appropriation. When told the number was seven he announced he would distribute them where most needed.

Petitioned For Street Light

A petition from Pastor W. P. Chapman and members of Pleasant Green Baptist church asking for a street light at the entrance to the alley at the rear of the church premises was upon Mr. Westphal's motion referred to light committee.

An application of Sessler & Weaver, of Montreal, Can., for contract of looking after the concrete end of the overhead crossing job was received and filed.

Upon the service director's approval of Sup. John Lynn's recommendation an appropriation of $759.47 was ordered to replace some faulty water mains on Tenth street between Chillicothe and Findlay streets.

Rules were suspended and ordinances passed appropriating $6,811.10 for the connecting link of the Cecil Miller sewer south from Twentieth street; $250 for a new city street sweeper; $1,000 for flood defense repairs; $100 for repairs to the Gay street engine house; $500 for fire hydrants and $50 for a water meter at the Carlyle brick plant; $201.24 for payment of Frank Seymour's work in building fences and adjusting properties incident to the widening of Gallia pike; $11.60 for payment of the sewer on Kendall avenue, north of Gallia pike; $100 for work done in the widening of Market Road to a full street width; $379 for the Waller alley or German Evangelical church sewer.

Some of these were unpaid claims from the previous administration and were explained by Chairman Schumack of the law and claims committee.

The monthly schedule amounting $110.37 was allowed.

Sewer Bonds Were Accepted

Auditor Gableman formally reported the acceptance by the sinking fund trustees at their meeting February 24 of the $10,000 sewer construction bonds.

Service Director Gergens reported that the breaking of some storm sewer tap tiling on Tenth street after the paving of that street was due to defective plumbing work and that the city should not be held responsible.

The solicitor was directed to bring in the necessary legislation appropriating $379 for the German Evangelical church sanitary sewer. The chair cautioned council

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

Time it! Pope's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that's a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pope's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you eat. There will be no sour rising, no belching of indigestible food, no heartburn, no flatulence or heavy feeling in the stomach, no nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or nervousness. This will all go and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pope's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pope's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

oil against overlooking any sewers that were pending but was assured by the solicitor that there was a sufficient balance for this sewer out of an old bond issue and that it did not infringe upon others.

Upon motion of Mr. Westphal the engineer was instructed to bring in an estimate for the extension of the Kenrick sanitary sewer west of Findlay street from its present terminus on Tenth street north to Twelfth street. Mr. Gergens reported that after discovering they would still be unable to drain their cellars Messrs. Pfau and Arbogast had withdrawn their petition for the proposed Pfau sewer.

The annual report of the board of health was read by the clerk and ordered placed on file.

Change Made In Heating System

For the purpose of making a revision in the plans of the heating system to be installed in the new Garfield school building being erected on the Gallia pike, the school board held a special meeting Wednesday evening.

The board, after going over the plans, ordered a change in the size of the pipes to be used, and the Tritscheller Company, who were awarded the contract, were allowed an additional $150 on account of the charges. An estimate in the sum of $400 was allowed to Architect Arthur Devoss, who prepared plans for the new Garfield building.

Another chapter was written in the High school smoke controversy, when Mayor Frick's letter on the matter was read and placed on file.

ALLEN CHAPEL NOTES

The prayer meeting at the Allen Chapel A. M. E. church last evening was very largely attended, there being nearly 100 present. Never before was there in the history of the Allen Chapel so large an attendance as that of last evening. The great increase can be attributed to the recent revivals. The meeting was conducted by Brother Turner. After prayers the invitation was extended to the congregation to testify for Christ to which there was a great many responses. At the closing of the meeting, Mrs. Mattie Marshall and Mr. Wm. Washington united with the church. Every meeting in the church is now being filled with the spirit and the Rev. Irwin is trying to influence every one to help. Let us hope the next meeting will show as good results as the meeting of last night.

I CAN'T GIVE UP MEANS I WON'T

SAYS REV. ALBERT L. MARTING

Before a goodly number of interested listeners Rev. Marting spoke last night at the Fourth Street M. E. church. His subject was one of the excuses of men, "I Can't Give Up My Evil Ways." The following passages of scripture were quoted to substantiate the claims put forth—Gal. 6:7: "Thou not deceived; for that which thou sowest, thou shalt also reap." John 8:36: "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free."

Indeed, Rev. Marting said in part: "These two seemingly unrelated texts are easily drawn together in connection with the subject at hand. To the claim, 'I can't give up,' the true answer, 'You must,' and the other 'You can.' If you say that you cannot leave sin alone, and then do wrong, what happens? You suffer the consequences; you reap what you sow. Sin, as a curse, always has its effect in this world, and in the world to come, as well. This immediately tells us what attitude God expects us to take toward sin. You must give up sin. If a man now insists on sowing to the flesh when he knows that he will reap of the flesh corruption, he is doing worse than waving red flag. He is deliberately turning up his nose at God. That is what 'mocking God' means. When a man does that to God, he is but making a fool of himself and pulling the wool over his own eyes. Plainly God says: 'You must leave sin alone. You can if you will. Christ came into the world to settle all disputes on that question. Men had tried to free themselves of sin before and failed. But if the Son shall make you free ye shall be free, indeed. Every saved man and woman is a testimony to the fact that the freedom that the Christ brings is a freedom in reality. I can't give up' means then 'I won't give up.' The man quarrel some beautiful selection entitled, 'I Can't Give Up' which will sing again tonight. The sermon subject for this evening is 'Sincerely Saved.'

It's cheaper to move than pay rent, get Mandigan to do it.

Bank Fire Extinguished

The fire department was called to extinguish a bank fire that had been smoldering near the Moeller slaughter house on Chillicothe pike Wednesday night. Chief McQuat was telephoned that the fire was eating dangerously near the Noel residence. The fire ladders worked for about one hour in extinguishing the blaze, which might have caused much damage had it been allowed to spread.

Local Team Dated For Peoria Tourney Scheduled For "13"

That no superstition exists on alleys 3 and 4 among the members of the Play House team which will represent Portsmouth at the National Bowling Congress to be held at Peoria, Ill., this month, was shown by the fact that a general laugh went up when the official schedule of this big meet was received yesterday and it was found the team was scheduled on alley 13 for the five men event. This event will be rolled off on the evening of Mar. 28, the team starting their games on alley 13 and alternating frames with the Blueys of Cincinnati, who will start on alley 14. The Play House team goes on the alleys at 8:45 p. m., and will finish by 10:30.

Then the players will hustle for their beds and be back on the alleys the next morning at 10:10 o'clock, when they are scheduled to roll their doubles. Byron Prediger and William Barron will roll on alleys 1 and 2, alternating with A. Reinke and W. Penske, of Milwaukee. P. W. Sheridan and Fred Prediger will alternate with James Wanless and Charles Wil-

"Fighting" Kennedy Will Enter The Ring

Fighting Charles Kennedy, crack boxer of this city has been matched to fight Jake Able before the Look-out Athletic Club of Chattanooga, Tenn., on the evening of March 4th. He has started training for the event, and expects to enter the ring in tip-top shape.

Kennedy stated Wednesday evening that he is in better shape than at any time since he has been in the fighting game, having been working out for the past three weeks in anticipation of a bout. Both hands are in excellent condition, and either of them conceal a punch that will carry with it a decisive if it lands fair.

GIANTS WANT BAKER

It was reported in baseball circles in New York Wednesday that the owners of the New York Giants had offered Connie Mack $40,000 for Home Run Baker. It is said that if the deal was closed Hans Lohr would go to second base for the Giants and Larry Doyle would become the team's utility infielder.

Only One Cobb

By Cobb's great ambition to lead his league at bat for the successive year. He already has eight nicks in his credit, doubling any record set in the past. Even the mighty Wagner was only able to lead the clan four successive years at bat, and Cobb manages to play on top ten seasons he will come into the ownership of a record that will almost certainly never be beaten and may not be even approached.

Plass Will Scout For Detroit Club

Forest T. Plass, last year manager and part owner of the tubaque Three-I club, has been appointed a scout for the Detroit American league club. It will be a merry race between Plass and Theron Bowland to see which shall beat Dick Kinsella to anything that looks good in the Three-I league. In the meantime Chick Fraser, another former Three-I manager, will be picking up good ones for Pittsburgh.

"BEWARE OF FOOD JAG" After the baseball teams are reduced to the limit set by the commission there will be a lot of players who will be involuntarily placed out of reach of the dangers of the food jag.

Real Rivalry For Positions

There is more real rivalry on the White Sox team this year for the different positions than ever before. The only place for which the candidates are not competing with others are second base, shortstop and catcher. Eddie Collins, Buck Weaver and Ray Schalk are the only players certain of their jobs. Some of the pitchers like Scott and Chetie feel quite secure, but other pitchers like Walsh, Russell and Benz are not sure they can make good.

FLOOD PREVENTION PLANS PROMISE TO BE EXTENSIVE

Washington, March 4.—A survey of riparian and topographical conditions in the Ohio Valley with respect to their relation to floods, and the drafting of a complete and unified plan of flood prevention will be undertaken the coming summer by United States army engineers as a result of the insertion of the river and harbor bill of an amendment providing for such a survey.

On September 30, 1913, the chief of engineers transmitted to the secretary of war a memorandum accompanying the report of the Ohio Flood Board. This memorandum and report were the basis on which Secretary of War Garrison drafted, and on April 15, 1914, transmitted to the House a message urging the appropriation of $40,000 for a survey of the Ohio Valley flood area.

Representative George White, of Marietta, introduced a bill to carry out the recommendation of the secretary.

The survey is to include the Cheat river, in Pennsylvania and West Virginia; Tygart river, in West Virginia; Kanawha river and its tributaries, in West Virginia; Muskingum river and its tributaries, in Ohio; Scioto river and its tributaries, in Ohio; Maumee river and its tributaries, in Ohio and Indiana, and the Wabash river and its tributaries, in Illinois and Indiana.

Provides For Survey As the item appears in the river and harbor bill provision is made for a survey of the above-mentioned streams "with a view to devising plans for flood protection and determining the extent to which the United States should co-operate with the states and other communities and interests in carrying out such plans, its share being based upon the value of protection to navigation and interstate commerce."

The amount to be expended on the survey is left to the discretion of the engineers' corps, as the river and harbor bill provides no specific amounts, but only a blanket appropriation of $30,000,000 in all.

Amateur Gardener Jon Kountz of the Criterion Clothing company, has joined the ranks of the amateur gardeners. He has planted a lettuce bed in the rear of his home on Second street and it will claim considerable of his attention the next few weeks.

OHIO STATE LEAGUE PLANS TO STAGE A REAL COMEDY

Following the baseball meeting held in Ironton, Wednesday, it was announced that another meeting would be held in two weeks, possibly in Portsmouth or Lexington.

While it is not certain that a team will be placed in Huntington the league officials feel confident that Huntington will come back along new lines and the fans of that city will rally to the support of its team. "Buzz" Wetzel, who formerly managed the Charleston team, is anxious to place a team in Huntington and is willing to dump a little of his earnings into the club's coffers.

Relative to yesterday's meeting the Irontonian says: "Messrs. Will Zollman and William Gableman, represented Portsmouth; Thomas Sheels, Lexington; L. E. Smith, 'Biddy' Beers and 'Buzz' Wetzel, Charleston; President R. W. Read, executive head of the league and Joe Carr, secretary, represented Huntington and Mayor Hannan, Dick Smith, Louis Milgrove, Dr. Dan Gray and Frank Wietek looked after Ironton's interests. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and each director was of the opinion that a good season was before the league as it now stands.

"Chillicothe was the city that was counted on to have a representative at the meeting that 'flunked' and this destroyed the plan of an eight club circuit, unless arrangements are made within a short time to secure two other cities that would add strength to the organization. Of course several cities can be secured but their ability to stick is doubted and it is thought better to have a stable six-club league than a very 'shaky' eight club affair.

"The main idea of league will be to secure likely youngsters, develop them and furnish good baseball to the fans at the lowest possible prices. The salaries will be cut in half in many cases and in every case the expenses will be cut to a minimum.

"A president, to succeed R. W. Read, who has presided over the league since its formation, will be named at a meeting to be held in about two weeks.

"The new president will be from this territory and will be capable in every particular. The directors stated that at present they had no one in view.

"President Read and Secretary Carr, together with other officials brought up the requests of Portsmouth and Richmond, Ky., for entrance and the request was granted.

"It was decided to keep the player limit down to 12, including the manager and a great saving is bound to be effected here, together with the salary limit, which some thought ought to be placed at $1200 but which was finally placed at the mark advocated by Ironton directors.

Will Have Local Pictures

The next series of Pathe's weekly is expected to include the pictures taken of W. P. Newkirk's patented blue flag demolition demonstration held in the B. & O. S. W. yards last Saturday.

WHAT CAUSES COLDS?

This question and "How to Prevent Colds" is asked a thousand times every day. A cold is really a fever, not always caused by the weather but due to a disordered condition of the blood or lack of important food elements.

In changing seasons, colds are essential because they distribute heat by enriching the blood and so render the body better able to withstand the varying elements.

This is the underlying reason why the medicinal fats in Scott's Emulsion quickly overcome colds and build strength to prevent more serious sickness. It contains nature's medicinal fats, so skillfully prepared that the blood profits from every drop, and it is totally free from harmful drugs.

Decision Is Given By Judge Newman

Columbus, March 4.—The constitutionality of the indeterminate sentence act, whose repeal now is being sought in the General Assembly, it will be necessary for some one who has been sentenced under its provisions to prosecute error to the higher tribunals. This is the effect of the decision handed down by Judge Oscar Newman "in re" Harry Allen and "ex parte" George Winslow, prisoners in the Ohio penitentiary who sought to test the validity of the act by petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

Big Crowd At Flag Raising

Enjoyable exercises marked the raising of the American flag over the Salem school house in Pike county, near Stockdale Wednesday afternoon, which was under the auspices of the Jr. O. U. A. M. and the D. of A. Speeches were made by Edward N. Dietrich, county school superintendent, J. D. McKinley, district superintendent, Dr. E. W. Tidd, C. M. Emory and Rev. J. B. Cummins. Special music was furnished by the Gravel Hill string band, which rendered several patriotic selections.

CONGRESSMAN KEARNS

Beginning today Portsmouth and Scioto county are represented in the National Congress by a new representative, Hon. Charles C. Kearns, of Clermont county, elected at the election last fall, over W. A. Hannan, of this city. The new members assumed their offices Thursday.

At the same time, Scioto county passes from the old Tenth district into the new Sixth district, composed of the counties of Scioto, Pike, Adams, Highland, Brown and Clermont counties. If matters from Columbus portend anything, it is likely that the present legislature will gerrymander the county back into its old district again.

What You Should Do, Is Essential

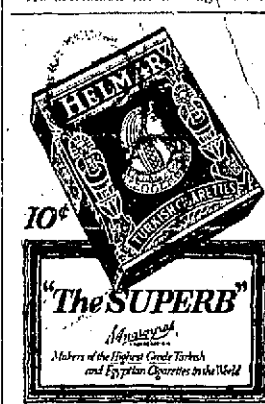

SAYS REV. A. R. CONNELL

"What Have I Done" was the subject of an inspiring sermon delivered by Rev. A. R. Connell, at the Bigelow revival services Wednesday evening. There was a marked increase in the attendance and a corresponding increase in the enthusiasm and interest.

Rev. Connell gave the subject a three-fold application; first, to the unsaved; second, to the backsliders, and third to the professed Christians.

Of times the unsaved will ask the question, "What have I done?" to indicate that they have not committed murder, robbery or other crimes for which they should be forgiven. The pastor pointed out that it was not what they had done, but that which they should do which counted. "One does not have to row a boat headed for the Sing Sing Falls to accomplish his own destruction," he declared.

Two wrong impressions often grip the backslider, according to the speaker. After he has cast aside his Christian experience in favor of worldly things, he becomes imbued with the idea that God won't take him back, and besides, as he has failed once, there is no use trying again. Rev. Connell impressed upon them that salvation was open to the backsliders as freely as to any one else. He criticized the average Chris-

Robert Cox, Jr., the other boy, continued his journey, with Wheeling, Va., as his objective point. NOT A PAIN OR ACHE

You will feel so much better and younger! Your general health will improve! You will enjoy good nourishing food again if you try this standard stomach tonic. The blood, muscles, tissues, brain, heart and lungs will get the nutriment they have been crying for. Your skin will clear up. Backache and rheumatic twinges will disappear.

In such cases reliable physicians recommend and use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are a standard world-wide remedy, prepared in Holland for over two hundred years by a special process, combining healing, antiseptic oils with tissue-building herbs. This is a natural home remedy, which can be tried for very little cost. It is not a "patent medicine." Therefore until you have tried them, the only way to tell the pure, original article, imported fresh every month, from Holland, is by buying GOLD MEDAL. There are counterfeits, but none other genuine. Your druggist can get GOLD MEDAL if you insist. They are carefully tested by United States Government chemists before being admitted into this country. Therefore be safe and refuse a cheap imitation, as they may be harmful. Imported only through the American Office of the Genuine Haarlem Oil Mfg. Co., 104 Water St., New York City. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Money refunded if they do not help you.

As the time for filing petitions in error for nearly all the prisoners in the Ohio penitentiary who might have secured release through nullification of the indeterminate law has passed, their remedy also vanishes.

CHARGES DISCUSSED BY BARBERS' UNION

Members of the Barbers' Union No. 224, held one of the most spirited meetings in a long time Wednesday night as it had been reported that three boss barbers had been doing work after closing hours. No evidence was introduced to show that these barbers had done work after the stipulated hours, it was unannounced. It was learned by H. O. Williams, secretary of the union, that three boss barbers did keep their shops open after closing time, but he says he could not find any one who had any work done in them after closing hours and the matter was dropped.

Wheelersburg Will Get New Skyscraper

Wheelersburg is to have a "real skyscraper." Will McCurdy who conducts a grocery in the Masonic building at Wheelersburg will be the owner of the village's first three-story building. Architect W. A. Davoss is now busy on the plans which call for a frame building 100 feet long, 26 feet wide and three stories in height. The new structure will cost over $8,000 when completed and will house two business concerns. Work will be started the first of June. The "skyscraper" will be the biggest building project ever attempted in the village which is to enjoy a rent building boom this year.

The structure will be built on the present site of Frank McCurdy's dwelling on Main street. Will McCurdy will occupy the first floor with his grocery business, which has grown to such an extent in the last few years that a larger room is necessary. Frank McCurdy, brother of Will McCurdy will occupy the whole second floor with his undertaking establishment while the third floor will be converted into a lodge-hall, something the village has needed for sometime. Frank McCurdy is in business on Main street at present. With the announcement of the erection of the new building McCurdy becomes a life long member of the "Do It Now Club."

Friends of Fred N. Tynes, former mayor of Portsmouth, are circulating petitions throughout the city, asking him to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for mayor at the coming primary election. The petitions are being freely signed, one man securing enough signatures to fill three petitions Thursday, he said.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotics, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing intellectual, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers as a result of opium or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opium in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the Druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of J. C. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of J. C. Fletcher.

REAPING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Portsmouth People

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Portsmouth residents on the following subject will interest and benefit many of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Lewis Fenner, carpenter, 1219 18th street, Portsmouth, says: "I was in a pretty bad fix with kidney complaint. When I stooped over, severe pains darted through the small of my back and I could hardly straighten up. My kidneys acted too frequently and the kidney secretions were scanty and hurried in passage. I had such dizzy spells that I often staggered around. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and felt relief from the start. Two boxes fixed me up in fine shape. Since then, when I have had similar attacks, Doan's Kidney Pills have always given prompt relief.

MAY OPEN STORE

Albert W. Goodman, former manager of the Globe store at 515 Second street, is negotiating for the lease of the room on Gallia street south of the W. W. Rely store, formerly occupied by R. S. Prichard. The deal will likely be closed Friday. He expects to open a clothing and gent's furnishing store if the deal goes through.

Mr. Goodman had intended leaving Portsmouth on account of ill-health but his condition has improved so much of late that he has about decided to remain in the city.

It's cheaper to move than pay rent—let Plumber to do it.

Prevented Big Fire

A bank fire and smoldering fodder for a time seriously menaced the John Mueller slaughter house near the Portsmouth Chemical plant at midnight Wednesday. The city fire department was called upon to fight the blaze and reached the scene just in time. The high stone foundation of the structure afforded it some protection against the flames.

COCOANUT OIL FINE FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

The most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain unsifted coconut oil, which is pure and entirely greaseless, is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather comes out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get unsifted coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

Steel Mill Man Painfully Hurt

Edward Wiget, a machiner on the steel mill at the steel plant, was a victim of a painful accident Thursday morning, when a steel slab fell on his left foot. The sharp edge of the slab inflicted a deep cut just above the instep, which necessitated the services of a physician to sew it up.

Wiget was standing aside a pile of slabs, which started to fall. He jumped to one side to avoid being struck, and succeeded in getting out of the way of all but the one that struck him.

The injured man is married, and lives on the Chillicothe pike. He was removed to his home after his injuries had been attended.

CINCINNATI RECTOR AT ALL SAINTS CH.

The Rev. Canon Stuart R. Purves of St. Paul's Cathedral, Cincinnati, was the special preacher at the Wednesday evening service in All Saints' church, and as usual, was greeted by a fine week-night congregation. His sermon was based upon the story of the women who stood by the cross of Jesus and was an eloquent exposition of the influence of the Gospel upon the lives and liberties of women. The preacher stressed the interesting fact that the gospel narrative does not record a single instance in which a woman was unkind to Christ. On the other hand in the very college of the apostles itself was found a Judas, a Peter, an outstanding example of treachery and cowardice, and in the hour of trial and danger the male disciples of the Lord "forsook Him and fled."

GERMANY AGREES TO MOST OF U. S. DEMANDS

WILL RAISE BLOCKADE IF ENGLAND PERMITS SHIPMENTS OF FOOD

Washington, March 4.—The official text of Germany's reply to the suggestions of the United States government, with reference to the abandonment of submarine warfare on merchant ships and the shipment of foodstuffs to the civilian population of belligerents was received late yesterday by the state department.

The German communication was an acquiescence on practically all of the points proposed by the United States. Administration officials were greatly pleased both with its tone and its promise of a cessation of submarine warfare on unarmed merchant ships if shipments of food to German civilians are not stopped.

All eyes are now turned on London, where the reply of the Allies to the same communication from the United States will be formulated. An acquiescence by Great Britain would completely alter the situation as it would involve also a withdrawal of the latest declaration of an embargo on all commerce by sea between Germany and neutral countries.

It was admitted at the state department today that a protest and the form of replies to the British declaration were under consideration, but the impression prevails generally that no steps would be taken until the reply of the Allies to the proposals now approved by Germany was in hand.

Although the answer from Germany, transmitted by Ambassador Gerard, left one or two points still to be negotiated, the fact that it promised that no attacks by submarines would be made on any merchant vessels if they are unarmed, provided there was no fictitious flag, raised the hopes of officials that something tangible would result from the negotiations. There was a feeling of confidence, especially that some restriction would be adopted concerning the use of mines.

SLOW PROGRESS MADE IN MINE RESCUE WORK; 14 BODIES RECOVERED

Hinton, W. Va., March 4.—Half a hundred miners and mining experts today worked with renewed effort to clear away the debris in the Layland mine, where an explosion occurred Tuesday, in the hope of finding some trace of life in the vast workings. Forty-eight hours after the fatal blast, only fourteen bodies had been brought to the surface, but it was believed that many more would be found before the day was over.

Slow progress was made in the search yesterday, owing to the great amount of wreckage and after-damp encountered in the mine, but the work of bratticing the main entry is progressing rapidly. Rescuers believe the main entry will be cleared of bad air probably by late today and they declare that when this has been accomplished rescue work will progress rapidly.

GLASS PLANTS RESUME

Washington, Penn., March 4.—General Manager G. G. Oliver, of the Hazel-Atlas Glass company, announced yesterday that all plants of the company in the Washington and Wheeling districts will resume on full time within the next two weeks, probably on March 15. Three thousand glass workers here will return to work and 2,000 at Clarksburg, W. Va.

DECLARE DARDANELLES FORTS ARE IMPREGNABLE

Berlin, March 4 (via London).—Attaches of the Turkish embassy here profess to be unconcerned regarding the bombardment of the Dardanelles forts by the great allied fleet. They declare the fortifications are impregnable, that the landing of troops at the entrance to the straits is impossible and that any attempt to land a force at any point along the shore of the Gulf of Saros would require more men than the allies can concentrate, leaving out of consideration the strong Turkish forces stationed at all threatened points.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung sends his paper an interview with Enver Pasha in which the chief of the Turkish general staff is said to have declared that the damage to the outer forts was less than had been reported but that these forts are the oldest of the entire line and their early reduction always has been expected if a serious attack were made upon the Dardanelles. The allied fleet, he declared, has yet to reach the real line of defense.

NAMED DIRECTOR OF THE FEDERAL CENSUS

"INS" AND "OUTS" IN THE SENATE

CONGRESS AWAITS NOON DAY HOUR

Washington, March 4.—After an all night session which brought about the passage of all but two bills of the billion dollar appropriation program, congress now awaits the coming of the noon hour which would write "finis" upon their work and set them free probably until early fall from the grind of law-making.

When the house re-assembled at 9 o'clock this morning after a recess, the failure of the Indian and postoffice bills in the senate was regarded as so certain that a resolution was passed extending the present appropriations over the next fiscal year.

With that, the house settled down to await the hour of adjournment. In the senate another attempt to break the opposition to the Indian bill failed and some Republican senators gave notice they would talk the postoffice bill to death.

Last year's appropriations, which under the house resolution would continue another year, were $313,000,000 for the postal bill and $80,700,000 for the Indian bill.

the public business that it had to attend to. It has disposed of all the appropriation bills which came before it, or could come before it. If the finances of the government are not taken care of now it will not be the fault of the house.

Shortly after 10 o'clock President Wilson left the White House and went to his home on the senate side of the capital to sign bills and meet congressmen in the closing hours.

Geneva, Mar. 4.—(Via Paris).—Gustavo Ador, of Geneva, president of the International Red Cross Society, has received from Pope Benedict a message of congratulation upon the "great and humane christian work" accomplished by the Red Cross since the war began.

CREELMAN BURIED

Berlin, March 4 (via London).—The funeral of James Creelman, the American newspaper correspondent who died here on Feb. 12, was held yesterday at the American church. Minister of Foreign Affairs von Jagow was represented at the services by Councillor Horstman.

GIVE PRESIDENT POWER TO STOP WAR SHIPMENTS

Washington, March 4.—All that was needed today to enlarge the power of President Wilson to prevent violations of American neutrality by vessels leaving United States ports with men or supplies for belligerent warships was the president's approval of a joint resolution of congress. The resolution, a substitute for that previously passed by the house, was unanimously adopted by the senate early today following a conference at the White House last night between President Wilson and members of the foreign relations committee of the senate and house and others. It was later agreed to by the house and today only awaited President Wilson's signature to make it a law.

As finally passed the resolution differs in some essential particulars from the original house measure. It has the hearty support of senate department officials who pointed out the immediate need of its passage because of the "critical situation" resulting from the European war. Attention was called by these officials to the fact that the American government had been hindered by inadequate legislation to prevent vessels from leaving the United States with supplies for belligerent warships in contravention of American neutrality. The proposed legislation is a direct result of information obtained by the government in the recent grand jury inquiry in New York into alleged shipments of supplies to belligerents at sea.

The resolution becomes effective immediately upon being signed by the president and will continue during the existence of the European war. The resolution empowers the president to direct customs collectors to withhold clearance from any vessel of American or foreign register or license which declares to be "about to carry fuel, arms, ammunition, men or supplies to any warship, or tender, or supply ship of a belligerent nation in violation of the obligations of the United States as a neutral nation." If such a vessel sailed, or attempted to sail, without clearance, a fine of from $2,000 to $10,000, imprisonment of two years, or both, and forfeiture of the vessel would be imposed. The president is empowered to use the military forces of the country to enforce the law.

NEW YORK POLICE FEAR MORE PLOTS

New York, March 4.—The existence of many plots on which the police have been working was made known today in a statement by Arthur Wood, police commissioner, in commenting on the indictment by the grand jury of Frank J. Abramo and Charles Carbone, charged with attempting to explode a bomb in St. Patrick's cathedral on Tuesday. Commissioner Wood said that so far as this case is concerned it does not go beyond Abramo and Carbone, but that there were other plots and other men which the police were watching.

W. VA. MUST RAISE $2,000,000 REVENUE TO MEET BIG DEFICIT

Charleston, W. Va., March 4.—Sitting as a committee of the whole, the West Virginia State Senate, when it reassembled to take up the work of the special session, plunged into a maze of figures produced by State Auditor John S. Dorst, Tax Commissioner Fred O. Blue and E. A. Dover, Auditor of Public Accounting.

When the smoke of argument cleared away the upper branch of the legislature found itself confronted with the problem of raising approximately two million dollars additional revenue for the next biennial period to meet the current expenses of the state government and to cover the deficit of $624,000 in the state treasury at the end of the last fiscal year, without taking into consideration balances of unexpended appropriations of $570,000.

Blame Prohibition For Bank's Failure

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 4.—The German National Bank of Pittsburgh did not open its doors for business at 9 o'clock this morning. A notice on the door said it had been closed by order of the comptroller of the currency. Officers and directors of the German National are prominently identified with the Pittsburgh Brewing company, whose securities recently have suffered heavily, on the Pittsburgh stock exchange, because, it was said, of the enactment of prohibition laws in West Virginia and extension of local option in Eastern Ohio territory in which the brewing company formerly did a large business.

GIVE US ELBOW ROOM.

This world is getting mighty small, or never has been as big as its reputation. Here is Portsmouth set far in the interior, according to usual calculations, but there isn't much worth while that can occur anywhere, unless somebody in Portsmouth is more or less intimately concerned in it. We read of the slaughter of countless armies about Prussians and right back in our press room is a young man born within thirty miles of the place; the death of a gallant young Prussian officer is reported and the reporter comes in with the word that his aunt is a resident of the city; a Get-Rich-Quick-Wallingford is ambushed in Georgia and orders are issued to another reporter to go out and get a story from his people who live in this man's town; the telegraph editor inquires: "Shall I play up this story of Missouri bandits imprisoning the president and directors in the vault and robbing the bank?" The editor says: "Sure; that's where my brother lives and he may be one of the directors." The L. C. gasps and splutters: "Did you say robbers?"

THE GOOD THAT BLOWETH.

It remains for the amiable and peace-loving William H. Taft, once president, now a pedagogue of some note, to point out not only the international right, but the national necessity of manufacturers in the United States furnishing arms and munitions of war to such of the European belligerents as are able to pay for them. In other words he finds the good that comes from the evil wind.

Advertising to the convention that our government should prevent Americans from selling military equipment to nations fighting with each other, he contends no hindrance should be placed upon the practice, both because it is under recognized international law and that it may eventually mean the preservation of our own land from the ravages of foes. His theory is, that it is impossible these United States will in times of peace make such demands upon the makers of cannons, guns, torpedoes and shells as will place the nation's armament upon a war basis; therefore, in time of stress they would be unable to meet the demands upon them, were it not that by permitting them now to supply the orders of foreigners they gain both the experience and the equipments that qualifies them to meet any requirements of the future.

And again, as we contemplate the problem of whether Joe did or didn't, with its various angles of accusation and denial, we are reminded of the old story of the man who grabbed hold of the tail of the bull. He had a big time for a few minutes, you will remember, but when he got tired of the fun and wanted to quit, he found he had a problem of his own on hands in letting loose.

One of the interesting out-of-the-ordinary thrills of the day with us now is to find glaring headlines in our exchanges reading something like this: "Big Scandal in Portsmouth's Administration," followed by the famous demand of The Star that Mayor Frick tie a can to Director of Public Safety Dr. Joe Lake.

The Democratic voters of Chicago are a most unreasoning set. According to the Tribune they defeated Mayor Harrison for the eleventh nomination because his performances were not equal to his promises.

Well, according to Lord Kitchener, it is less than two months before fighting will begin. As purveyor of the world's happenings, that hardly interests us so much as whether or not Mr. Kitchener is going to let any word of the fighting seep out.

It cost Chicago $266,000 to demonstrate that she is not a musical center. Her Grand Opera Company has just quit that amount in debt.

The Irononian expresses the fear that when the Portsmouth Star goes into the Lake it may get into deep water.

It has come! Coming down in the elevator, this morning, the other fellow said: "Have you noticed these Zeppelins are carrying the war sky-high?"

The usually accurate Marion Star tells us Edward Gibson is dead at Raymond. Would he be alive if he were in Marion?

Just give William J. Burns time and he'll catch him. Of course, he is from Ohio.

SPRING BIRDS

WASHINGTON'S SINS.

(Roanoke, Va., World-News)

In a Washington birthday address Champ Clark, speaker of the house, made the following statement: "Somebody may object that Washington occasionally drank a mint-julep, bet on a horse-race, danced the Virginia reel and at Monmouth swore because Charles Lee spoiled the plan of battle by retreating when ordered to charge," the speaker said, "but we must judge men by the manners and customs in which they lived and not by those of our times. In Washington's day nearly all men drank mint-juleps, occasionally danced, bet and swore without any consciousness of sin. Washington was thoroughly human and no doubt sometimes sinned. I am glad he did sometimes sin, for it shows we belong to the same breed that he did which is a great honor to the rest of us."

Commenting on this paragraph the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch says that "there were better men and less crookedness before the business of being my brother's keeper enlisted the sacred ranks of general reformers."

It is curious, and also highly interesting, to note how eagerly the weakness of great men is seized upon to bolster up the cause of laxity. Mr. Clark says, "I am glad Washington did sometimes sin," and the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch chimes in with a fling at what it terms "general reformers."

The company that assembles under the banner of sin and misery is almost countless, embracing probably at one time or another every human being on earth. But the members of this company are not always alike.

A vast number of others are glad that others fail. In the downfall of their fellow men, they have peculiar comfort. In the up-building of their fellow men they have bitterness of spirit and an endless array of splenetic ideas.

A vast number of others are glad when men succeed. They rejoice over beauty of character, exult in the advancement of human opportunities, and believe in the growth of purity and goodness.

Between these two factions, if such we may call them, there is a wide difference. Every man and every newspaper can enroll himself or itself for one side or the other. If he be glad that others sin, he will rejoice because of the misery that we all endure; if he grieve that others sin, and believe that men can work sincerely for righteousness, he will glory in the goodness and virtue and love that in reality exist all around him.

CAN YOU GUESS IT?

Of course you guessed the CHAMOIS; I'm not at all surprised That you should know it without being told. And now today I'm going to tell you of an animal That is so fierce, it makes your blood run cold.

It lives away in Asia, and is just about as large As a lion, and has whiskers like a cat; Its eyes are big and shiny, and they glisten in the dark When it goes to hunt its prey—now think of that!

Its skin is marked quite handsomely with rows of shining black. And is quite often used for rugs and such. But we all know that "handsome is as handsome does," and so We really can't admire this creature much.

For it is as ferocious and as cruel as can be; It will eat men and little children, too! It's really not an animal that one would like to meet, I'm glad it lives in Asia, aren't you?

I think perhaps you've guessed its name already, and, if not, I'm sure you will before so very long; The name begins with "T", so make your guess, and you will know Tomorrow whether you are right or wrong.

SAYS HUSBAND IS INNOCENT

Portsmouth, O., March 4, 1915.

Editor Times—Kindly allow me space in your paper in which to make an emphatic denial of the charges made by Mr. Panenke, who testified before Mayor Frick in the case where my husband was accused of stealing his (Panenke's) pushcart, which resulted in my husband being found guilty. Mr. Panenke testified that I had told him that my husband had stolen the cart, which is a falsehood in every particular. He did not even speak to me concerning the disappearance of the cart. My husband did not, even take the cart, as can be proven beyond a doubt. Had my husband testified I am sure Mayor Frick would not have found him guilty. We have lived beside the Panenkes for some time and we thought nothing of it if Mr. Panenke used our cart without permission. Had my husband used the cart, it would not mean that he was malicious in his actions, for Mr. Panenke was always at liberty to use ours without permission.

My husband is accepting the verdict of Mayor Frick with resignation, but I think it is wrong for him to be suffering when he is innocent, and when Mayor Frick, whom I believe to be an honest, conscientious man, doubtless convicted him through the testimony of Mr. Panenke, who declared that I had told him Mr. Henderson had stolen the cart and disposed of it. An investigation will prove that every word would not have found him guilty. In this story is absolutely true.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR,

LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur dyes so naturally that nobody can tell.

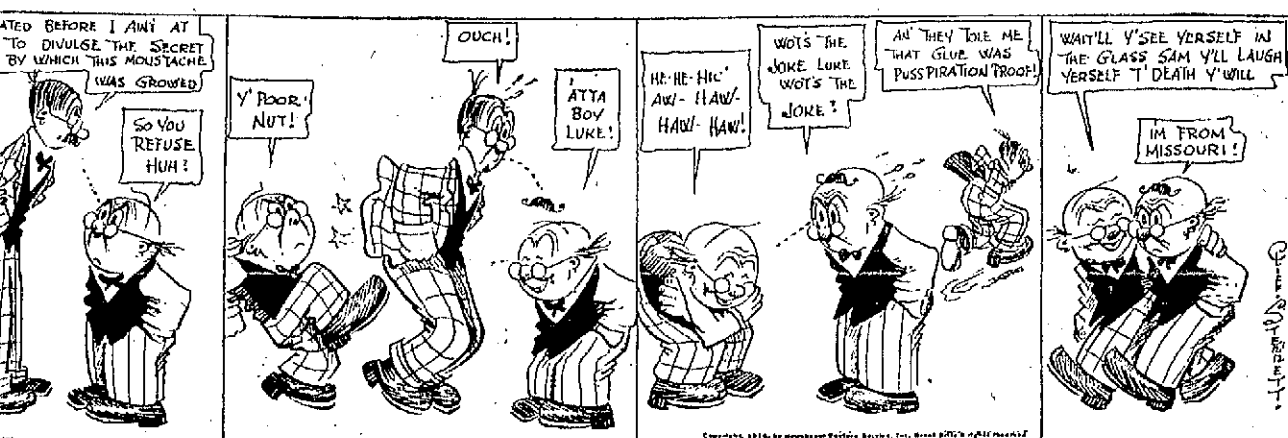

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Vereck's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

Rev. Dunning To Be Third Member

Messrs. L. C. Turley and Harry Strong, the two members of the committee selected to probe the charges made against city officials by the Star, this morning selected Rev. J. W. Dunning as the third member, and all consented to serve under the condition that the committee be given the legal power to summon witnesses and to compel them to testify.

The committee, through one of its members, stated there was considerable doubt as to whether this power could be conferred, and said that the city solicitor had been asked to give them an opinion as to whether this was possible, and if so, how to proceed.

It was stated that Mayor Frick had given the committee his assurance in writing that he would confer every authority on them in his power to grant, as he was anxious to have the charges probed.

Members of the committee also said that they were anxious to go into the matter thoroughly, if given the proper authority, and that they would begin sessions of the committee as soon as possible. They also asked that it be stated that the members of the committee did not feel that they represented any special class, such as laboring men, manufacturers, ministers, etc., but that they represented all citizens of the city who were concerned in having the truth about the city administration being made known.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Roser Scholl

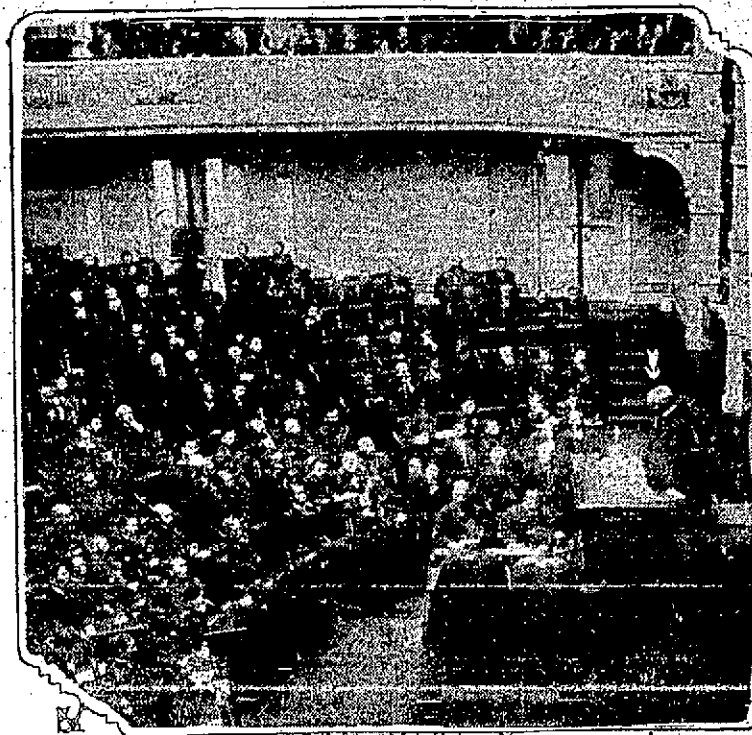

Joseph Scholl, superintendent of the tile plant mill at New Boston, received a telegram Wednesday informing him of the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Roser Scholl, 78, which occurred at her home in San Diego, California, Wednesday morning at 2:30 o'clock. Death was due to a paralytic stroke sustained the evening before.

The deceased had been in failing health for the past few weeks, having suffered a stroke of paralysis recently upon her return to San Diego from her old home in Scranton, Pa., where she had visited relatives. That, coupled with the stroke Tuesday evening, was responsible for her death.

Mrs. Scholl was a native of Germany and came to this country when young. Her husband preceded her to the grave a few years ago. She is survived by eight children, as follows: Joseph and H. P. Scholl, of this city; Robert, of San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Mary Rine, Mrs. Anna Pfeiffer and Mrs. Lena Seebaker, all of Scranton, Pa.; and Miss Kate Scholl, of San Diego.

Local relatives are awaiting word from San Diego regarding funeral arrangements. If the body is taken

WAS HELD ON SUSPICION; WAS MISSED BY CHURCH; IS RELEASED AT ONCE

It is little wonder that the mayor dismissed Claude Harrison, a colored young man, who appeared before him Monday on complaints that he had been conducting some "Jack-the-Perpetrator" stunts, after receiving the following communication:

Portsmouth, O., Feb. 27, 1915.
Mr. Claude Harrison was arrested on suspicion and taken to the city prison. He was greatly missed from the 5 o'clock prayer meeting Sunday morning and the Young Men's Bible Class, and his Sunday school, and from his home. Honorable Sir:—The young men of the Bible Class of Pleasant Green Baptist church, on hearing of the arrest of one of its regular, punctual attendees, in the person of Mr. Claude Harrison, wish to promulgate a few facts in his behalf, founding his character in general. Brother Harrison is a member of this church and a faithful worker in all of its auxiliaries. We know him and wish to cheerfully recommend him as a Christian gentleman.

Suggests Viaduct At Broadway St.

Mayor Adam Frick is out with a compromise proposal should the Lawson Run viaduct or overhead crossing project fail and suggests that Broadway be chosen as a new site for a viaduct.

The mayor feels it would be a serious mistake to return to the Kendall avenue subway plan and does not think that the railroads will ever build an under crossing there. He a year ago had thought of Broadway and Gallia street as a most suitable site for an overhead crossing nearer as it is to the city and serving as it would the purpose of a new street in diverting traffic and relieving blockades and congestion at the Gallia street crossing. He would start the viaduct on the vacant unoccupied lots near the Smith and Dunn coal office and take an "S" shaped swing ending the structure near the Harsha flour mill on Eighth street.

Councilmen after their meeting Wednesday night expressed fears that the Lawson Run viaduct project would be abandoned and while they would regret it they felt it was not for council to take any initiative in the proposed elimination of Kendall avenue grade crossing in the face of the N. & W.'s claims to owning the crossing.

Apply For Contract

The Sessler-Weaver Company, engineers of Montreal, Canada, have applied for the contract of looking after the concrete end of the new overhead crossing job. Their application will be presented to city council tonight.

Fate Of Overhead Crossing Now In The Balance; Whole Project May Be Abandoned

With but one dissenting vote city council Wednesday night rejected the resolution proposed by N. & W. officials declaring council's intention not to interfere with the elimination of the Kendall avenue grade crossing after the overhead crossing is completed.

Council did not stop with the action stated but went on record as declaring that unless the N. & W. and B. & O. S. W. accepted the ordinance providing for the construction of the Lawson Run viaduct or overhead crossing by the first meeting in April it would repeal all legislation pertaining to the overhead project and the clerk and solicitor were directed to so notify the companies.

All members voted to reject the resolution save Mr. Wilson. He was the last member reached on the roll call and after a moment's hesitancy he voted "No." Thus what promised to develop into a lengthy and spirited discussion in which property owners and other interested persons in the lobby were ready to join, was shut off.

Chairman Gulker Presented Resolution

Chairman Gulker of the street committee, introduced the resolution. Mr. Westphal at once raised the question that if the Kendall avenue crossing had been used for 21 years the city had any rights to the crossing. Solicitor Stanley McCull, replying to him said it was a matter to be ascertained by reference to records but that a certain portion of the crossing had never been dedicated.

Mr. Westphal took the ground that if the city had no rights in the crossing it was not for it to say that the crossing should be eliminated and if the N. & W. owned it, as claimed, it was up to the company to close it to travel but he for one would never vote for the resolution.

Mr. Gulker took the same stand declaring that the crossing had never been dedicated to public use and if the N. & W. wanted it closed it could build a fence across it right now but he was opposed to council taking any steps in the matter and going on record and thereby waive all rights that some property owners might have there. He said he was not borrowing any trouble, but he did not think council should take the stand the N. & W. would have it take.

Hanging Fire For Many Months

Solicitor McCull reminded council that the overhead project had been hanging fire for months and that the N. & W. had never accepted the ordinance drafted and will not go ahead until council either passed or refused the resolution. He suggested that action be taken one way or the other as early as possible to settle the matter and called attention to the fact that the old Kendall avenue subway legislation was still in effect and that it was probably advisable to give the railroads a certain time in which to proceed with the overhead crossing or return to the subway plan. He was interested only in seeing an early settlement of the proposition and said that was due the property owners of that vicinity who were kept in suspense.

Attorney Edgar Miller who said he represented some 200 property owners of Bartlytown and vicinity was privileged to briefly address council. He simply wanted to corroborate Mr. Westphal's statement and added that the Kendall avenue crossing was a legal crossing by common law dedication and that the property owners seriously objected to its elimination. Mrs. Clara G. Foster also desired a hearing to oppose the resolution but the chair ended further discussion by declaring there was no motion before the house. Mr. Westphal brought matters to a head by moving that council reject the resolution, Messrs. Gulker, Moeller, Osborn, Schmanck, Shump and Westphal voting for and Mr. Wilson against the motion. Mr. Gulker created some merriment by wishing to embody in the rejection any further proposals on the Kendall avenue question the future might bring but was ruled out of order, the chair informing him that council cannot object to something that is not up before it.

Mayor Frick Was Absent

Mayor Frick was not present but the reading of his communication, giving a summary of the flood wall extension and other big public improvements recommended by the board of control for this year was followed with considerable interest.

After Mr. Wilson moved to receive and file the communication Mr. Gulker expressed himself as heartily in favor of the mayor's suggestions but thought that he should have made specific recommendations as to what part of the improvements should be undertaken. He felt that council was up against it as a whole in the way of finances. President Osborn agreed with Mr. Gulker and suggested that the board of control recommend such of the improvements it would advise having forwarded. He said the general summary simply placed the improvements right back to council when the board should be the body making the recommendations.

Tried To Refer To Committee

Mr. Wilson moved that the flood wall extension be referred to the street committee but this brought objection from Mr. Gulker. He did not think this the proper committee to pass upon the proposed improvement and insisted it was for the board of control to make recommendations. Mr. Wilson thereupon withdrew his motion and Mr. Gulker's motion to refer it to the board was substituted and carried.

Match Almost Touched Magazine

Some fireworks was threatened when Mr. Gulker reported some property owners on New Seventh street between Lincoln and Osburne streets were restrained from taking out sewer taps because the sewer varied in size. This brought Mr. Gergens to his feet. He said he was glad the subject had been brought up. He said acting upon council's orders he had arranged for an extension of the sewer from the Maddock addition to Lincoln street and had awarded the contract to Kelley Bros. for $83. They had delivered the tiling and had started the work when it was stopped by City Engineer George Wilhelm. "Give it to him good and strong for he deserves it," said the director with considerable warmth but a search for the engineer proved he was not in his office.

Mr. Gulker again took the floor and demanded to know: "Who is the service department anyway, the engineer or the director, if we ask anything done why isn't it done?"

No action was taken and although Mr. Wilhelm later entered he was not called upon for any explanation of his act. Safety Director Lake had no report to make.

Chairman Moeller, of the light committee, said there was quite a demand for additional lights and wanted to be informed how many had been provided for in the semi-annual appropriation. When told the number was seven he announced he would distribute them where he most needed.

Petitioned For Street Light

A petition from Pastor W. P. Chapman and members of Pleasant Green Baptist church asking for a street light at the entrance to the alley at the rear of the church premises was upon Mr. Westphal's motion referred to light committee.

An application of Sessler & Weaver of Montreal, Can., for contract of looking after the concrete end of the overhead crossing job was received and filed.

Upon the service director's approval of Supt. John Lynn's recommendation an appropriation of $759.47 was ordered to replace some faulty water mains on Tenth street between Chillieth and Findlay streets.

Rules were suspended and ordinances passed appropriating $6, $11.10 for the connecting link of the Cecil Miller sewer south from Twelfth street; $250 for a new city street sweeper; $1,000 for flood defense repairs; $100 for repairs to the Gay street engine house; $500 for fire hydrants and $50 for a water meter at the Carlyle brick plant; $201.24 for payment of Frank Seymour's work in building fences and adjusting properties incident to the widening of Gallia pike; $11.60 for payment of the sewer on Kendall avenue, north of Gallia pike; $100 for work done in the widening of Hubert Road to a full street width; $379 for the Waller alley or German Evangelical church sewer.

Some of these were unpaid claims from the previous administration and were explained by Chairman Schmanck of the law and claims committee.

The monthly schedule amounting $110.37 was allowed.

Bewer Bonds Were Accepted

Auditor Gableman formally reported the acceptance by the sinking fund trustees at their meeting February 24 of the $10,000 sewer construction bonds.

Service Director Gergens reported that the breaking of some storm sewer tap tiling on Tenth street after the paving of that street was due to defective plumbing work and that the city should not be held accountable.

The solicitor was directed to bring in the necessary legislation appropriating $379 for the German Evangelical church sanitary sewer. The chair cautioned council against overlooking any sewers that were pending but was assured by the solicitor that there was a sufficient balance for this sewer out of an old bond issue and that it did not infringe upon others.

Upon motion of Mr. Westphal the engineer was instructed to bring in an estimate for the extension of the Kenrick sanitary sewer west of Findlay street from its present terminus on Tenth street north to Twelfth street. Mr. Gergens reported that after discovering they would still be unable to drain their cellars Messrs. Pfau and Arhagast had withdrawn their petition for the proposed Pfau sewer.

The annual report of the board of health was read by the clerk and ordered placed on file.
